Sewer talks planned

Polley Field picked for high school site

By MARY SULLIVAN
Lakeland Newspapers

Polley Field has been selected as the future site of Antioch Community High School (ACHS), touching off a new round of negotiations on sewer connections for the project.

"If it is possible, I think all three of the municipalities would be willing to work out some sort of agreement regarding sewer," said ACHS School Board Pres. Len Moore.

The ACHS Board of Education approved the new location, despite decision by Lindenhurst officials not to waive a $230,000 sewer hook-up fee. Moore abstained from the vote due to his role as chairman of the Lindenhurst Sanitary Commission.

"We know what the fees are," said ACHS Board Member Frank Walsh, "all other things considered, it's cheaper to go to Polley Field."

The sewage treatment plant slated to service the Polley site is owned by the Lindenhurst Sanitary District. The lines connected to the plant are owned by the village.

The commission has agreed to waive approximately $230,000 in impact fees to accommodate the school project. More than $230,000 in tap-on fees is continuing to be levied pursuant a decision by the Lindenhurst Village Board.

Lindenhurst Vill. Pres. Robert R. Ratch stands by his board's decision, but remains open to negotiations.

"It was the belief of the village board that we were doing enough by the sanitary district waiving the impact fees," said Ratch in a telephone interview.

The decision to locate the school at Polley Field was based on several factors including its central location and availability of land. The property, which is unincorporated, is already owned by the school district.

"We're making a commitment to the property," said ACHS Board of Education member Frank Walsh, "that doesn't mean we're making a commitment to Lindenhurst."

According to Ratch, approximately 40 percent of the school's enrollment come from Lindenhurst.

"It seems to me that it is a very appropriate site because it's centrally located in the area that it services," said Ratch.

Voters will have an opportunity to act on the issue in a referendum, April 2. A "referendum committee" is being formed by the school to examine the need to expand and provide information to residents.

The committee, still forming, is comprised of board members, faculty members and residents.

The committee is planning to conduct a poll to ascertain public sentiment on the school expansion. Also planned is the organization of a speaker's bureau and production of video tapes to communicate their goal.

The committee is chaired by Jim Hintz, Antioch and Joyce Heneberry, Lake Villa. Roger Manderscheid, Antioch, is the treasurer and Janice McKoski, Lindenhurst is the secretary.

According to the board, current enrollment of approximately 1,800 and an increasing number of mandated programs, have precipitated the creation of the space crisis commission to delegate any space not being used. Most of the "core" areas of the school such as the cafeteria, science lab, math room and library, were designed to accommodate 900 to 1,000 students.

ACHS Business Manager, Ken Werschen cited projections which indicate that each class from the elementary feeder schools has grown by 30 students.

"Every grade school grade is approaching 500 students," added ACHS Werschen.

This year's seventh grade class is made up of 507 students, while the sixth grade includes 490. However, Werschen notes that the freshman class is generally larger than the preceding eighth grade.

Beware of phone scam

By MARY SULLIVAN
Lakeland Newspapers

"We do not do phone surveys," warns Antioch Fire Dept. Pub. Safety Insp. Lee Shannon.

The department has received three complaints in two nights from residents inquiring about a caller who identifies himself as a member of the Antioch Fire Dept. and asks for information.

"There is a person calling up asking them questions about whether or not they have smoke detectors in the house and asking whether or not they will be home," said Shannon.

The complaints came from residents concerned because the calls had been answered by children. These individuals are urged to contact the department with any additional information that may aid the investigation.

Shannon stresses that all surveys conducted by the fire department are done in person or by letter.

Anyone receiving a questionable phone call should report it to Shannon, 395-5511, Monday through Friday, 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., or Antioch Police Dept. Cpl. Ron Roth, 395-8585.

Silent lights, holy lights

The La Salette Festival of Lights, again featuring 50,000 glittering lights at the La Salette Shrine on Hwy. KD, just south of Twin Lakes, Wis. and north of the Antioch Twp. border, draws thousands of visitors from Lake County. The brothers at La Salette are asking visitors to pray for peace in the Persian Gulf this year. On Sunday, Dec. 23, at 6:30 p.m., there will be a special program for children.

Chairman Depke settles in to new post

by STEVE PETERSON
Lakeland Newspapers

He was getting used to his new phone system and furniture in the office on the 10th floor of the Lake County Building.

Yet, despite being on the job only a couple of days, Robert Depke somehow appeared comfortable. The door to the outside hallway was open as he would greet Lake County board members walking by on a break from a committee meeting or Warren Twp. friends wishing him well and those waiting for scheduled appointments.

Depke, Warren Twp. supervisor, is indeed carrying on in the tradition of his father, Owen.

"My Dad is the reason I got into this. I always thought he did a great job and I knew how honest he was. My main concern has been people," Depke said.

Shawn Depke is the only Depke youngster involved in politics, as he is Warren Twp. Republican chairman.

Depke, Warren Twp. supervisor since the early 1960s, received an early Christmas present as he took over the chairman's office on a unanimous first vote.

"I was thrilled and excited because I tried eight years ago for an election on a comeback and county chairman as well. They made it unanimous, which was nice. It gets you off to a better start," Depke said.

Depke won the David Durenberger award as the nation's top grassroots public servant in 1988.

One of Depke's first duties as chairman is expected Dec. 21 as the other 23 county board members who voted for him will find out what committees they will be on for the next two years. He favors a county board of 19 to 21 members. It has been as high as 37. "I think people need to be able to be represented and talk to on a local level," he said.

He ripped a study on the county board done by previous chairman Norman Geary.

"The study went the way he wanted it. There has to be an even balance," Depke said.

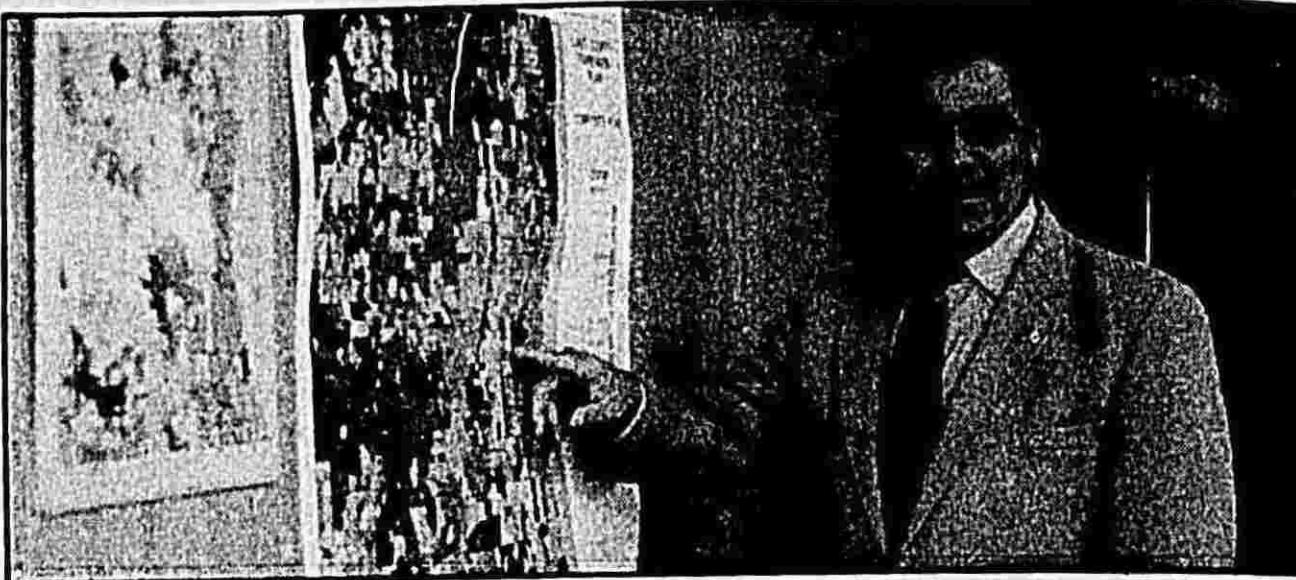

Depke expects a smooth transition from former Chairman Norm Geary's era. He met with department heads last week and Lake County Administrator Mike Migalis has been updating Depke on the ongoing projects.

"There is a lot more going on now than there was 20 years ago," Depke, who served as chairman from 1968-1970, said. "We did not have an administrator, or staff. They will help, there is no doubt about it," Depke said. "I think I'm in better shape than I was 20 years ago because of the knowledge of the county board and all the different positions I've held because of national and state association of townships."

Depke will be setting up a new committee on impact fees as an intergovernmental pact, with one member from each county board district and six members from municipalities. The members from the towns will be selected by Lake County Municipal League.

There will not be many shakeups in personnel, the new chairman said.

Depke said he saw no problem in balancing his Warren Twp. and county duties. "I have a good staff there and there is a good staff here. I'll still handle the phone calls and make the decisions. I don't see a major problem. I'm here (county building) from 8:15 - 8:30 a.m. and then the afternoon the first two or three weeks will be tough but once it gets rolling, I don't think it will be a problem," Depke said, noting Jim Fields and Geary both had supervisor roles.

"We're going to run a good ship here. I think that is what is needed," he said.

By July, a reapportionment committee will be discussing boundary lines for the districts, a hot political issue as it may also change the number of Lake County board seats in the expected county population of 510,000.

"There has to be a kindness used with the general public. We have to purchase some land if we have the money to do it. Most of your growth should be controlled by zoning. You should not go and designate property just to stop growth. The Lake County Forest Preserve Dist. was never designed to do that. It is a county forest preserve. I keep hearing this district stuff in my district, in this district. It was never designed as how much each district would get out of it," Depke said.

Downsizing big step to affordable housing

Members of the Lake County Task Force on Affordable Housing are pushing for a definition of affordability as they head toward the half-way mark of their assignment---finding housing that minorities, senior citizens, middle and lower income families and starting couples can afford to buy.

So far the Task Force, headed by prominent builder Jeff Pickus, has run into a formidable hurdle---defining exactly what affordable means.

There is evidence that the range of affordability might be $90,000 to $130,000. Some Task Force members are arguing that any thing higher puts a home beyond the reach of anyone in the middle to lower income brackets.

Pickus, whose company Pickus Construction Co. has been building in Waukegan and Island Lake, has spelled out a scenario that can bring housing costs down in Lake County: reducing land costs through downsizing lots will enable builders to produce more affordable housing.

Richard J. Brown, whose Cambridge Homes has been building for years in Libertyville, Mundelein, Spring Grove and recently in Grayslake, found in a survey that there is a desire on the part of the public for smaller lots.

Decorating Seminar

Century 21 Mission Realty is hosting a home decorating seminar on Saturday, Feb. 2, from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. at the Country Squire Restaurant in Grayslake. For further information call Leigh Vandermeer at (708)356-7653.

Even with conventional sized lots, a Wauconda firm is producing a three bedroom, two bath ranch for the base price of $119,000 by downsizing.

Burnside Construction Co. is offering a 1,250 square foot ranch model that is compact, "yet full of pizzazz," stated Gail Klepacki, sales manager for Country Ridge.

Burnside is using a central great room to the rear of the home measuring approximately 300 square feet, to provide a keynote.

A unique six-sided kitchen/breakfast room is one feature Burnside considers "pizzazz."

Included in the purchase price are ceramic foyers and bath floors, wall-to-wall carpeting, wood windows, maintenance-free aluminum siding and sodded front yards. Side and rear yards are seeded.

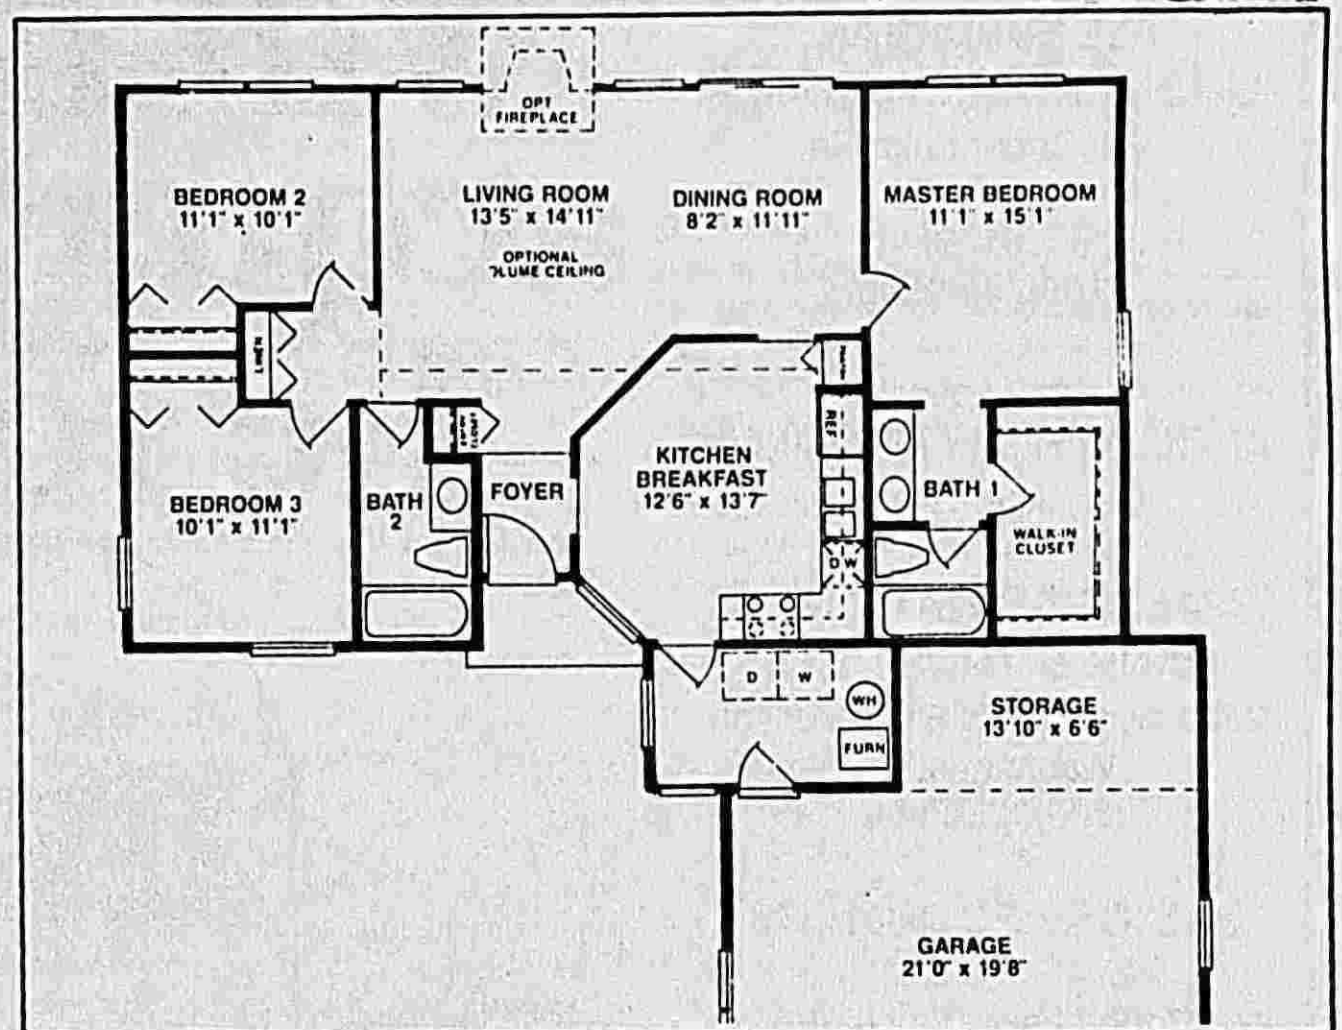

With moderate upgrades, buyers can get sunken family rooms and vaulted ceilings.

With these features, the affordability range rapidly is being left behind.

Jim Onan, innovative Waukegan builder, is preparing to build a demonstration home he says will even be less than the low end of the scale being talked about by the Task Force. By utilizing modern lower cost materials available and getting building code variations, Onan reportedly will build a free standing home that will market for less than $70,000.

Even though the goal of lower priced housing is formidable, Task Force members are not discouraged. With about six months to go, they are encouraged that they will be able to provide some significant answers.

The Task Force was formed by action of the Lake County Board.

Affordably priced

Geared for empty nesters but adaptable for middle income families or a starter home, 1,250 square foot ranch model being built in Wauconda by Burnside Construction Co. is proving to be popular. Base priced at $119,900, eight floorplans are offered. Basic plan features three bedrooms, two baths, living-dining room, eat-in kitchen and attached two-car garage.

"Never, Never, Never Quit"

These words were spoken by a man who knew well the struggles of dealing with tough emotional problems. His manic-depression forced him to fight against severe mood swings, making it difficult for him to cope with everyday realities, let alone a very stressful and challenging job. Yet, he never gave up. He never let his illness stand in the way of his potential for tremendous personal growth. His name was Winston Churchill.

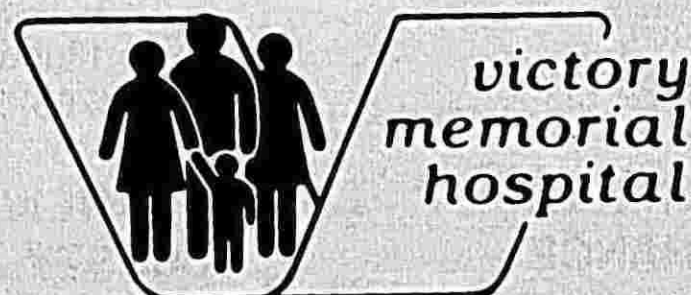

At Victory Memorial Hospital's Mental Health Unit, we believe that every individual has the potential for tremendous personal growth. A time of crisis can also be a time of opportunity. It's our job to help people understand and take full advantage of these opportunities when they occur.

Rather than rely heavily on medication, our program seeks to guide patients back to health through one-on-one lessons in how to deal with life's tensions. Patients participate in individual counseling, group therapy, relaxation training, stress management and family counseling. We believe this problem-solving approach to emotional problems helps ensure that our patients will remain healthy.

If you or someone you love is struggling with a tough personal problem, remember, "Never, never, never quit." Instead, reach out for help. Call the Victory Memorial Hospital Mental Health Unit at (708) 360-4082.

Will this old acquaintance be forgot?

When Charlie left the New Year's party he said "see you next year". But unfortunately, he didn't live to see the following day.

He was just one of thousands of ordinary people who are killed or injured in alcohol-related auto accidents each year.

And what his friends will remember most, is that they just didn't notice that he had had too much to drink before he got behind the wheel.

This holiday season, make a resolution to use good judgement. Don't drink and drive. And watch out for the other guy, too.

High school levy jumps 26 percent

By MARY SULLIVAN
Lakeland Newspapers

The Antioch Community High School Board approved a tax levy of $7.9 million, an increase of 25.74 percent over last year's figure.

"If we don't try to levy to the maximum, which we're trying to do, we're going to be borrowing much sooner," said ACHS Business Mgr. Ken Werschen.

Werschen attributes the rise in the levy to an increase in assessed valuation coupled with a decrease in the allocation of state aids. He estimates the increase in assessed value at 21 percent, due mainly to new construction.

Expenses have risen $1.6 million according to Werschen, while the wealth per pupil also climbs. However, the cost spent per pupil is the second lowest in the county.

"We're not spending the dollar amount that these other (Lake County) schools are," he added.

Funds are scheduled as follows: $5.2 million, education; $985,000, operations and maintenance; $430,000, transportation; $197,000, working cash; $275,000, municipal retirement; $236,000, social security; $197,000, fire prevention, safety, environmental and energy conservation; $300,000 tort immunity; and $80,000, special education.

Werschen notes that the tax rates may not necessarily reflect the full amount according to the levy. He estimates a possible increase in tax rates from $1.93 to $1.98.

However, in the past 32 years, Werschen says, with the education fund levied at $1.32, the full amount was levied only three times. The amount actually levied for transportation costs has consistently fallen below the allotment of 12 cents.

Fire Dept. eligibility boundaries redefined

By MARY SULLIVAN
Lakeland Newspapers

Prospective Antioch firefighters must reside within a one and one-half mile radius of the fire station, to be eligible to serve. The Antioch Village Board of Trustees unanimously passed the residency requirement, Dec. 17. The department will continue to maintain a membership of 55.

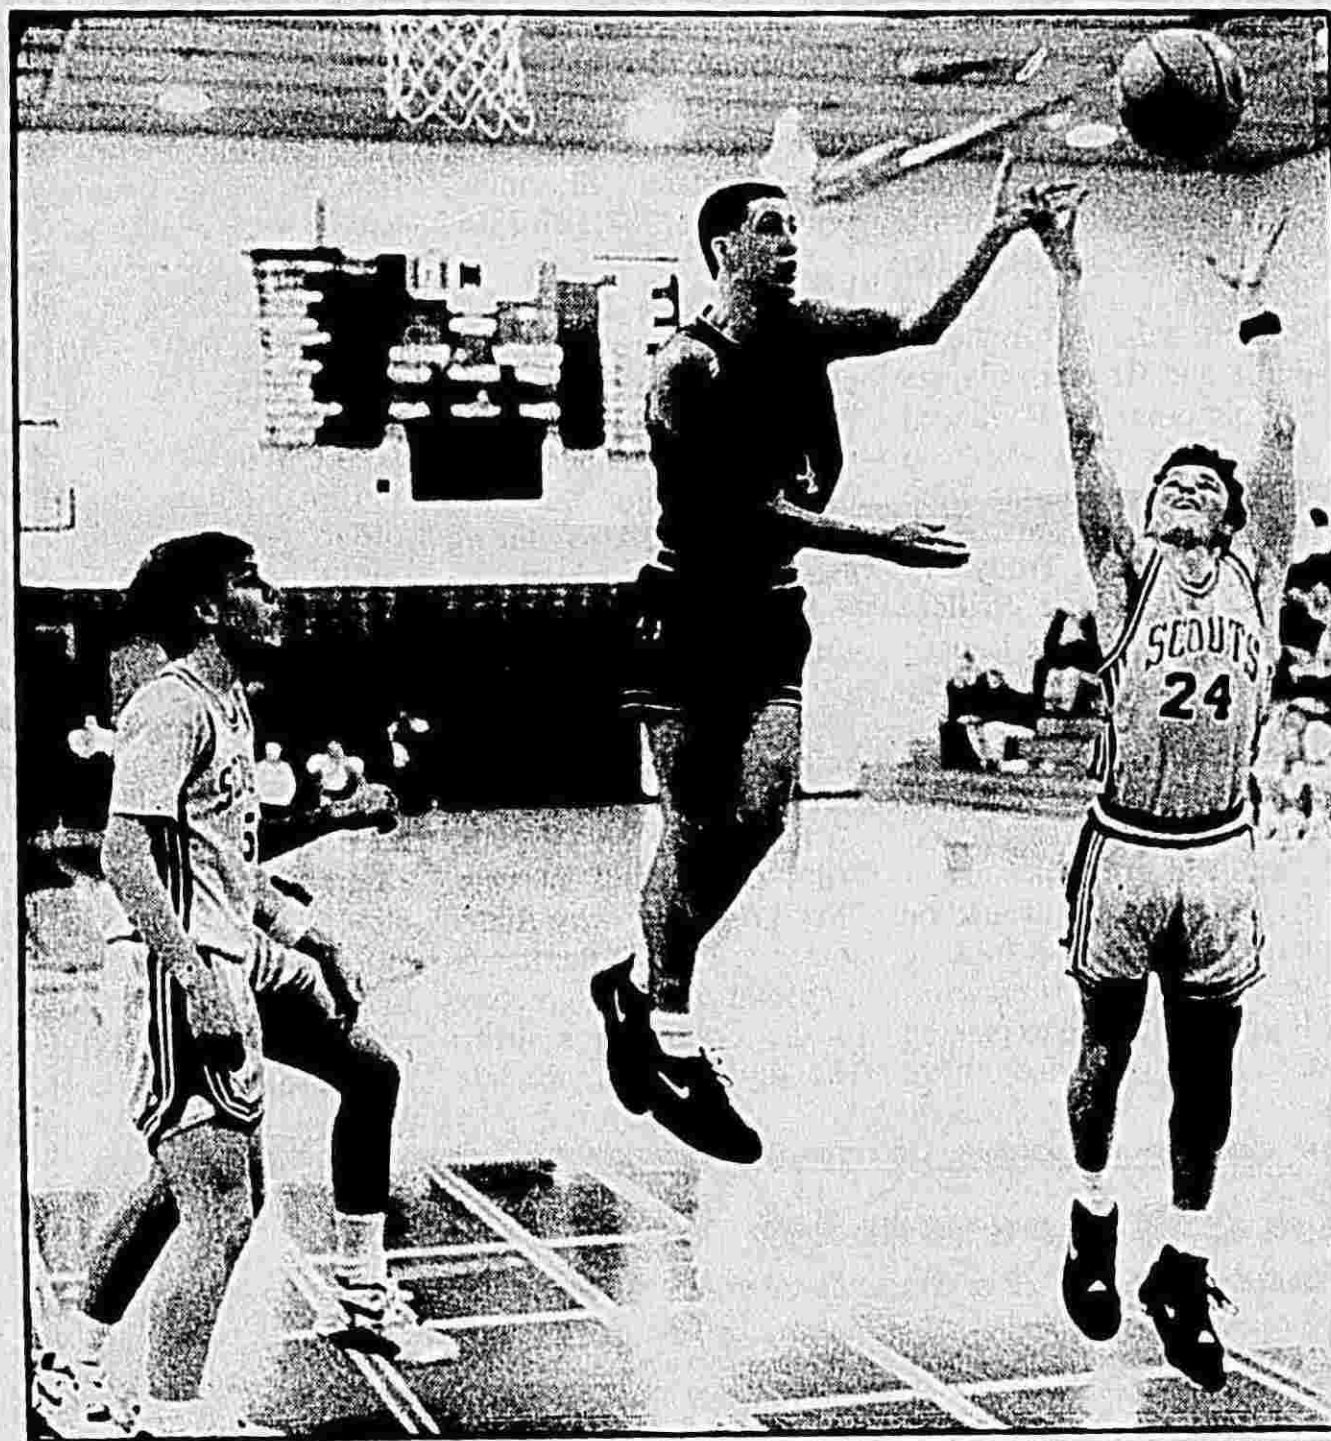

"As people retire or resign, it will incorporate the eligible officers, people who were not able to be on the department in the past," said Antioch Public Safety Inspector Lee Shannon.

According to Shannon, the boundaries were redefined to ensure that no firefighters were located more than a 10 minute drive from the station.

The reshuffling will enable an increased number of candidates from the northern, southern and western edges of the village to serve on the force. Along the eastern edge, an area consisting primarily of undeveloped farmland, recruitment may be limited.

Additional requirements for serving on the Antioch Fire Dept. are "able body", 18 years of age or older and a high school graduate or GED equivalent.

Restaurant benefits from liquor licensing change

By MARY SULLIVAN
Lakeland Newspapers

The Antioch Village Board of Trustees voted to amend the liquor licensing ordinance, increasing the number of Class A licenses from eight to nine.

The ninth license is expected to be granted to DiMarco's Restaurant at a reconvened session of the village board, Saturday, Dec. 22 at 8:30 a.m. The license permits the establishment to serve beer, wine and liquor to customers.

'I felt that special consideration should be given to DiMarco's because of its location in the TIF district,'—Trustee Marilyn Shineflug.

"I only feel it to be an asset for the downtown area," said Mayor Robert C. Wilton of the restaurant.

The board acted with the backing of the redevelopment committee to increase the number of licenses to one per every 680 of the population. Trustees Donald Amundsen and Mabel Lou Weber dissented.

The action was taken in response to a plea by Donna DiMarco, manager of DiMarco's Restaurant, 883 Main St. She and her colleagues implored to the board that without a Class A license, the business could not survive.

"They presented a very strong case that they need the revenue from a Class A liquor license in order to stay in business and expand," said Trustee Marilyn Shineflug in a telephone interview.

Several residents in attendance, as well as Amundsen and Weber expressed concern that issuance of the license would pave the way for another "tavern" on Main St.

"The redevelopment commission was definitely opposed to the tavern concept on Main St." voiced a commission member.

DiMarco asserted that customers patronize the restaurant primarily for the cuisine. However, many prefer to drink something other than beer, wine or soft drinks with their meals and will go elsewhere to do so.

"We will not be a tavern," said a DiMarco representative, "our function is to service people who come into our restaurant to dine."

A mitigating factor in the decision was the location of the restaurant in the village's redevelopment or Tax Incremental Financing (TIF) district. As such and as a prospective catalyst for business in the downtown area, the establishment was deemed to merit the license.

"I felt that special consideration should be given to DiMarco's because of its location in the TIF district," said Shineflug.

A motion to review the liquor licensing ordinance with respect to the kind, number and method of issuance was also approved.

In advocating a review of the ordinance, Shineflug referred to the Village of Libertyville's liquor licensing policy which includes a special consideration for "fine dining" establishments.

Before and after school program set

Antioch Parks and Recreation Dept. has announced that the Village Campus Before and After School program is running smoothly and additional staff is available to accommodate an increased enrollment in the program. If it is necessary to leave your child home alone before or after school then the Village Campus program can meet your needs.

Started last September, the before and after school care program is coordinated by the Village of Antioch Parks and Recreation Dept. It is open to students in grades one through six who attend school in Antioch that use School Dist. 34 bus services.

Village Campus offers children an after school snack, outside play when the weather permits, games and creative play time, art and craft projects, and homework/study time if they choose to make use of it. The program is staffed by Keel Vetere, a certified and experienced teacher, and Liz Glenn, an education student. Both are there to coordinate the games, projects and activities of the children and to help with studies or homework when necessary.

The fee for the Village Campus program is $40 per child per week for after school attendance. This fee is pro-rated for anyone using the program less than five days a week. The program is also available for full day attendance on institute days and legal holidays as well as during Christmas break and spring break, at no extra cost.

Anyone wishing more information on the Village Campus Before and After School program or would like to enroll your child, call Theresa Kovach at the Antioch Parks and Recreation Dept. (708)395-2160.

Move over Santa, "Tocca Toc is coming to town"

by LIZ SCHMEHL
(708)395-5380
Who?

While most people are anxiously counting the days until Santa Clause will slide down our chimneys, Ray Brausam is waiting for a visit from "Tocca Toc" obviously a throw back from his childhood! "To each his own!"

Holiday Spirit

Once again "The Lizard" enjoyed her holiday involvement in the yearly ornament exchange gathering. As usual it proved to be a nice way to kick off the holiday season. This year it was at the home of "Marie Brausam." There were 14 of us participating, which meant that each of us had to bring 13 of the same ornaments to pass. Consequently you returned home with 13 beautiful and different ornaments to add to your collection. Most of the ladies make their own. I usually buy mine as I have no imagination when it comes to crafts. Marie's house was beautifully decorated, there was tons of good food to eat, and the Christmas music was softly playing in the background. The end result was a wonderfully fun evening. The gals who participated were Tricia Olenick, Cindy Marquart, Renate Wlezien, Gloria Gambit, Patti Santiemmo, Julie Dvorak, Lorrie Teaters, Linda Boerman, Natalie Newcomb, Debi Mozal, Darlene Olenick, Linda Boerman, Marie Brausam, and yours truly. I am telling you people, if you want a neat holiday idea, round up about 15 to 20 ladies and try this one. You won't be sorry.

First Night

On Dec. 31 families from all over Lake County will greet the New Year with a dazzling array of arts, entertainment, and special activities. This celebration known as "First Night" provides a safe, alcohol-free, family-orientated New Year's Eve extravaganza. This affordable and entertaining family evening is geared to all age groups. A variety of sensational shows will be performed in convenient downtown Waukegan locations. "First Night" opens at 6 p.m. on Dec. 31 and concludes with a spectacular midnight fireworks display. For further information concerning this alcohol free celebration, contact Vicky Gordon at the Private Industry Council at (708)249-2200.

How Nice

As I sat witnessing Grass Lake's hard fought victory over Emmons, I enjoyed a visit with Sandy La Forge and Alice Fleming. Later I chatted with Jane Buss and Linda Boerman. Ray Liss meandered over and told me Grass Lake was hard hit with chicken pox, and Robin Gwinn, the cheerleading coach, helped Marie Brausman and I get pictures of the girls for the yearbook. Little Heidi Gwinn, the team mascot, was all decked out in her cheerleading outfit, while her new little sister, Hanna, eventually napped on mom's comfortable shoulder. After the game, coach, Steve Bartlett, helped us round up the A and B team players for pictures. As I glanced around the gym, I noticed Judy Fechter keeping score and Carolyn Adams, Barb and Rich Kocal, Trudy and Don Grob, Chris Priller, Toni Burke, Percy Laube, and Mike Fleming enjoying the game. Last but far from least, I noticed Matt Tabar, superintendent of Emmons, seated among the spectators.

Part-Time Help

Lotus School, located on Grass Lake Rd., is looking for a lunch-time supervisor. If you would like to pick up a little pocket money, have extended time off at Christmas, Spring Break, and summer vacation, and enjoy working with kids, contact Joanne Fleshman, principal, at (708)587-7311.

Late Wishes

I have been writing this column for two years now. Each month during that time, I have extended happy birthday wishes to many nice people. Also during that time I have given several reminders to contact me with happy birthday, anniversary, and get-well wishes. So last week, I read in Russ Fairchild's "Holiday Stroll" that he celebrated his 80th birthday on Oct. 14. All I could think of was, "My goodness, why didn't someone contact me to put a special birthday greeting in the column for Russ. The saying is "better late than never." So happy belated 80th birthday Russ. Next year I will get your 81st birthday in on time. Incidentally, as usual, you have done a terrific job entertaining us with your holiday stroll, and as usual I have personally enjoyed reading it.

Good Work

Congratulations are in order for the following Emmons' students who achieved grades that qualified them for honor roll status. The "A honor roll" students are eight grade: Britt McCallum, Reni Towns. Seventh grade, Kevin Arts, Charlie Miles, Brian Murphy, Dana Pierson, Sean Polite. Sixth grade, Amber Cashmore, Laura Deutsch, Jamie Hope, Keith Hurley, Erik Stefenburg, Bret Towns.

MORTON'S NEUROMA

A pinched nerve in the front of the foot, usually between the third and fourth toes, can be a torment. Because the problem is deep in the foot, there is usually no visible sign. There are however a number of clues that lead to a diagnosis of a neuroma.

1. Burning in the ball of the foot.
2. The feeling of walking on a stone or marble.
3. Numbness or tingling in the affected toes.
4. A sudden sharp pain in the forefoot that makes one want to remove the shoe and rub the foot.
5. Inability to be comfortable in most any shoe.

If you have the above symptoms or any other foot discomfort, you may contact Dr. Winters for a NO COST CONSULTATION to see if there may be an answer to your foot pain.

By MARY SULLIVAN
Lakeland Newspapers

The Emmons School Board is soliciting for candidates to fill the school board position left vacant by the death of Sandy Steffenburg, 43, who succumbed to cancer, Dec. 6.

"The rest of the board was very devastated by her passing and she'll be a very difficult person to replace," said Emmons Supt. Matt Tabor.

"She was a very organized and dedicated board member," he said, "she was a very classy person."

Applications for the position are available at the school office. Candidates must be a U.S. citizen, 18 years or older, a resident of the school district for at least one year and a registered voter.

The board will base its selection on a questionnaire and interview process. Candidates will be considered for their interest in serving, level of expertise, time available to serve and opinion on changes to existing policies or programs.

As part of the screening process, the board will hold a special closed session meeting, Monday, Jan. 7 to interview candidates. The selection will be made at the conclusion of the meeting or at the regularly scheduled board meeting, Monday, Jan. 14.

The new member will be officially seated Jan. 14 and will hold the position through the remainder of the term, which expires in November.

According to Tabor, several individuals have expressed interest. However, in the event that a candidate is not selected within 30 days of the vacancy, Regional Supt. of Schools, Sybil Yastrow may be asked to make the decision.

Candidates must apply by Friday, Dec. 28 at 3 p.m. Applications can be mailed or dropped off at the school, 24226 W. Beach Grove Road, Antioch, Ill., 60002.

For more information contact Tabor, 395-1108.

Fairchild tours holiday hot spots in Antioch

Ben Franklin Family Center

Dear Christmas shoppers, this is still your store with the genuine spirit. Even more than last year, because of new ideas and improvements that have been implemented.

But of course you're full aware of all this. However, it's still a team effort.

Owner Don Marski, is up front chatting with our popular Police Chief Chuck Miller. All is well here.

I see Mary Anichini and her mother, Corina Bernardini, browsing around over in arts and crafts, being aided by Mngr. Barb Bailey. Trustee Mabel Lou Weber, walking through frames and pictures capably supervised by Dawn Dunham.

Milton Kosar chatting with Jean Kosa, officer manager.

Chief honcho, Bob Obenauf, a wonderful asset in many ways to the deserved success of Ben Franklin's center, is here one minute and elsewhere there next. Always on the go to help improve an already beautiful and popular store.

And say, "Have you seen the variety of Christmas trees in the rear of the store?" Very unique and desirable.

I personally rate Franklin's card section with the best, and generally find what I'm looking for, as I send greeting cards all year around. That's a hobby of mine.

Pearl Leatherbery, I believe is now the oldest employee in point of service, and well thought of by customers and fellow workers. Even back to the good, old days when "The Pantry" was a happy gathering place for us all. The birthday parties, Christmas, Halloween, anniversaries, we all shared, and also, the sad moments when a loved one left us. There were tears right along with the laughter.

I'm certainly glad I always had a camera with me, as one of my hobbies was photography, and I have most of the regulars who shared our happiness, and our sorrow.

I seldom look through the photos anymore, because I've had my share of sadness, just like you, and I prefer looking at the positive side. Diane Swanson and Marge Sette are gone.

But, Franklin's will always touch a soft spot in my heart. I wish all of you fine folks a wonderful Christmas. "Be kind to one another."

P.S. "This is a winter wonderland the 'Lizard' would appreciate!"

Vi's Yellow Bird

"First, thanks for the floral arrangement from Lasco's."

Channel Lake on the outskirts of town. Popular polka palace of Vi and Al Johantgen. Pleased to see page 11 in "Footlights '90" ad book showing Vi with Steve Baskerville as co-host of Ms. Illinois Senior Citizens Pageant, held Sept. 24, 1989, at the Marriott Hotel in Chicago.

I was happy to see Vi recently as a guest at the newly remodeled Squire Restaurant. Also Uncle Jess Lloyd and Marge of "The Stardusters."

With the holidays getting nearer, if it's real atmosphere of Christmas spirit you appreciate, the Yellow Bird may be just what you'll find to you liking. I know, personally, that this beautiful showplace never loses its allure to me. There's only one like Vi.

Professionals who know real polka music from Whipple street.

Such as Hot-Nuts Ron and his polka originals. Ernie Stetz.

Barbara Flannum and the Karasels, Bill Stutz, Stephan.

Ed Broniecki and his Cordovox. Visiting personalities of the stature of Eddie Korosa from his baby doll tavern on the north side of Chicago, John Hyzny and Laurie from the old Personality Lounge on Archer Ave., just to name a few.

So, what are you waiting for, Lawrence Welk?

Maybe we'll all meet someday under these pleasant notes.

Well folks, I hope you were right along with me, on this, the last stroll of 1990.

And if you're a little tired from our walk, don't fret, So am I, Lord willing we shall all pass this way again.

Enjoy your holidays!

Editor's note: This is part of a series by Russ Fairchild about celebrating holiday cheer in Antioch.

Lakeside Market Place is right in the center of the Chicago-Milwaukee megalopolis, located on I-94 at exit 347, three miles from Hwy. 50. For designer buys at discount prices, residents from both sides of the border follow the Frontage Rd., past the Visitor's Center to the designer outlet center, approximately 47 miles from Chicago and 35 miles from Milwaukee, just east of Bristol in Kenosha County.

Lakeside offers discounts on designer buys

Lakeside Market Place, located at Hwy. Q and I-94 in Pleasant Prairie, introduces the discerning shopper to the world of designer fashions and ultra possessions in crystal, leather, toys, etc. at discount prices.

When Phase 1 was opened two years ago by Lakeside's creators, the McArthur Glen Group out of Washington, D. C., it's decided discount difference drew interest from both sides of the border.

Now that three of the four phases have been implemented, with approximately 60 stores open, approximately 340,000 square feet of ultra shopping is the final goal.

These designer buys are at prices advertised to be from 20 to 75 percent off of the suggested retail price.

Almost 75 percent of Lakeside's customers come from the Chicago area and the northern suburbs in Lake County and now that 1990's Christmas shopping rush is underway, the parking lot is jammed.

Demographics of Lakeside claim that the average customer who shops there comes from a $35-40,000 income base.

Shoppers, who often have a taste for the better things in life, often better than their income would normally allow, have found a haven at Lakeside where the best can be found at reasonable prices.

With the word recession being banded about by the media, even those who are financially comfortable feel the need to get more for their money with Christmas just around the corner.

Products from famous name companies like Liz Claiborne, Ann Klein, Gilligan O'Malley, JH Collectibles, American

Tourister, Calvin Klein, Evan Picone, Gitano, Adolfo II, Jordache and Argenti are among the designer labels that are hawking their wares with class at Lakeside, aiming for places under everyone's Christmas tree.

Some shops like Liz Claiborne carry the designer's discontinued lines; Ann Klein's merchandise including accessories and her yummy perfume, comes direct from the factory.

There are even designer socks from E. J. Plum and European fashions ala Oleg Cassini, all at a savings.

At Ann Klein's, Asst. Mgr. Gail Fields says the Christmas gift rush has begun with jewelry, scraves and other female accessories the favorite buys. She doesn't expect the men to start their shopping until just before Christmas, as most retailers know.

At Harve Bernard small items like men's designer ties and agenda books are being snapped up by holiday shoppers, says Shannon Bellongia, assistant manager.

With cocktail and dressy dresses the specialty of Oleg Cassini's, the shopping for the special Christmas party started well before Thanksgiving.

What's in? Everything, as long as it's short, long, glittery, glitzy, and especially if it has spaghetti straps.

And if the person you're shopping for has a sock fetish, they have socks with giraffes on them at E. J. Plum.

The average shopper is so busy oogling the merchandise, that they miss Lakeside's namesake, as well as that of the Lakeview Corporate Park next door, a man-made lake that is someday expected to be a 250-300 acre recreational spot.

Government seizes Home Federal Bank

by PAT CHRISTENSEN
Lakeland Newspapers

The federal government placed Home Federal Bank for Savings in receivership. The Waukegan-based bank has been chartered into a new institution, Home Federal Savings Bank, F.A. under the management of the Resolution Trust Corp.

The Resolution Trust Corp. is a subsidiary of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corp. (FDIC). Home Federal maintains sites throughout Lake County, and these are all affected in the takeover. Branches are in Grayslake, Lindenhurst, Fox Lake, Round Lake Beach, and Lake Zurich, along with a commercial office in Chicago.

The takeover has not resulted in any interruption of day-to-day activities. "If we do our job perfectly," said new Managing Agent and Conservator Robert H. Bukowski, "nobody out there will notice the difference. They will be served by the same people, and these are all competent professionals. They will be able to take care of all the depositors needs effectively and efficiently."

Under seizure, the newly chartered institution will take over "certain assets and liabilities of the old thrift," according to a press release put out by the Office of Thrift Supervision. This means that all liabilities and deposits pass directly from the old, failed thrift to the new institution, along with most of the assets. The depositors accounts and investments continue to be insured.

No accounts have been lost and there will be no new risk for current depositors, according to Bukowski. "They were insured before we intervened," he said, "and they are insured the same way after." All deposits are insured up to the $100,000 legal limit.

As of June 30, the old thrift had "troubled assets" of $41.3 million, and, on Sept. 30, reported an operating loss of $1.68 million and a net loss of $4.43 million.

As of Sept. 30, the thrift had assets of $348.1 million, including goodwill, liabilities of $339.7 million, and tangible capital of negative $2.49 million. This gave the thrift a tangible capital to assets ratio of negative 0.72 percent. "Nobody can stay in business with negative tangible capital," said Bukowski.

The Office of Thrift Supervision blames Home Federal's financial troubles on "weak management, a high cost of funds, misclassification of assets and a high concentration of poorly underwritten commercial real estate loans." More than half of Home Federal's troubled commercial loans, according to the Office of Thrift Supervision, were made outside the institutions market area, and the commercial loan portfolio amounts to approximately 33 percent of the thrift's total assets.

Home Federal was wholly owned by board chairman Alan Pollack and his wife, and was a federally chartered stock association. The Pollacks will retain no interest in the new institution and the board of directors has been disbanded.

"We will simplify the organization," said Bukowski, "and separate the good assets from the bad ones. When we have done that, we will offer the association to qualified buyers on, essentially, an auction-type basis using sealed bids." Bukowski couldn't say for certain when this might occur, only that it might be within nine to 18 months.

According to Bukowski, the newly organized institution will not be making any extensions of credit. All loans are suspended, which means no loans will be made. Any loans "in the pipeline" before the takeover will be looked at "on a case by case basis, but, unless required to do so, I don't anticipate we'll make the loan,"

'The only reason the doors are open, even though the bank has failed, is that the full faith of the government of the people, by the people and for the people is behind it.'—Robert Bukowski, managing agent and conservator for Home Federal Savings Bank, F.A.

Bukowski said.

"We are operating on the intangible capital of all the taxpayers in the company, and we don't want to assume any credit risk we don't have to. The only reason the doors are open, even though the bank has failed, is that the full faith of the government of the people, by the people and for the people is behind it."

Until the new institution is solvent and in the hands of a new owner, Bukowski promised, "We will continue to serve the best way we can."

Abbott pledges $1.71 million in charity fund drive

Abbott Laboratories and its employees and retirees have pledged more than $1.71 million to support area health and human service agencies during the company's annual charity fund-raising campaign at its Lake County facilities.

Abbott's Lake County employees pledged $1,221,632 in the company's 1990 Combined Appeal, surpassing the goal of $1,130,000. This is a 19 percent increase over last year's total employee contributions, according to Dan Struble, vice president of corporate engineering and general chairman of this year's Abbott campaign.

Local retirees pledged nearly $16,850, and sales employees made contributions totaling more than $97,290.

In January, Abbott will make corporate contributions of $460,000 to the United Way of Lake County and $32,200 to the United Way/Chicago Crusade of Mercy.

The contributions of 62 Abbott employees and retirees exceeded $1,000, making them eligible for the United Way of Lake County's "Pillars Club." This program recognizes and honors individuals who display leadership and uncommon benevolence in addressing local human needs through support of United Way.

During the campaign,

Abbott invited employees to indicate their interest in volunteering with a United Way agency. More than 220 employees signed up to volunteer.

Contributions to the Abbott Combined Appeal support area United Way and health organizations. Approximately $846,770 of Abbott employee and retiree contributions are designated for the United Way of Lake County and its affiliated agencies.

Where annuities fit into financial plans

by NICK BROWN

Annuities are a great way of providing yourself and your family with a continuing income at a designated date. And because there is no medical underwriting involved, it is available to anyone with the need and the appropriate funds.

This is how an annuity works. You put a certain amount of money into an annuity on either a lump sum or continuing payment mode which then earns interest. This interest is earned on a tax-deferred basis until you decide to take the money out.

At a designated time, you either elect to receive a lump sum payment or begin receiving monthly or annual payments for the rest of your life. Most contracts can be designed so that in the event of your death prior to all of the principal being paid out, your beneficiary will receive the balance of the principal payments.

Two Categories

There are basically two different categories of annuities: qualified and non-qualified.

Qualified annuities consist of money that was previously in some type of pension or qualified retirement plan, usually corporate sponsored, that you have received prior to retirement. People usually and immediate.

A deferred annuity is when you put money in now and defer payments until a later date, usually retirement when you are in put this disbursement into a qualified annuity or IRA to defer taxes until retirement.

Non-qualified annuities consist of money that has usually already been taxed and which you are putting away for yourself on an individual basis.

Now, under the two separate categories of qualified and non-qualified annuities, there are two further types of annuities: deferred should have certain provisions that guarantee your principal. The company insuring the annuity should be of the very highest quality as rated by A.M. Best, Standard and Poors, Mood's and Duff and Phelps rating services.

The surrender value should be guaranteed to never be less than the principal. It should also have a bail-out provision so that if the interest rate is lowered below a certain rate, you can surrender the contract for its surrender charges.

It should also have some type of partial withdrawal provision wherein you can make a maximum of one withdrawal a year up to 10 percent of the annuity value without paying any surrender charges.

You should contact your financial advisors to see where annuities may fit into your financial plan.

Local savings association awarded five-star rating

Bauer Financial Reports, Inc., a Coral Gables, Fla. research firm is pleased to announce that Second Federal Savings & Loan Association has been awarded a five-star rating. This prestigious award identifies this institution as one of the safest, most credit-worthy savings associations in the United States.

The award is based on a zero to five-star rating assigned by BFR based on its analysis of the June 30 financial data as filed with federal regulators.

A five-star rating, for the safest savings associations in the country, indicates that the institution's adjusted tangible capital exceeds 6.0 percent of tangible assets, its core capital ratio exceeds 6.0 percent, its risk-based capital ratio exceeds 8.0 percent, that there are no excessive delinquencies or repossessed assets and that the institution was profitable or suffered an insignificant loss for the quarter ended June 30. Paul A. Bauer, president of the research firm said, "In this difficult time for the thrift industry, it's encouraging to see so many strongly capitalized, safe savings associations. Traditional thrifts, institutions that serve the local community and watch their bottom line, most often receive our five-star ratings. Out of 2,717 savings associations reporting for the period ended June 30, 942, 35 percent, received our five-star rating."

Erasing differences

Forty-two Illinois school districts including some from Lake County are co-plaintiffs in a lawsuit to test whether the state's present system of school funding is legal and equitable. Almost everyone agrees that the system is patently unfair. The suit is a means of obtaining a court decision to solve a school funding problem that has eluded a political solution.

Educators long have sought a system that erases regional differences. Illinois has to get away from the "one glove fits all" funding system, asserts Robert Leininger, state superintendent of education. Leininger isn't afraid to admit that where a student lives depends on the education received. The differences in quality are more pronounced from Antioch to Carbondale than from Lake Forest to North Chicago. But the difference is unmistakable.

Evening out the funding process is one part of the solution. Another is developing new measures of accountability. Somewhat surprisingly, Leininger admitted to members of the Illinois Manufacturers' Assn., "We can't tell what kids are learning." So the problem is more than money. Leininger isn't alone in the belief that early childhood education may be a big part in raising educational levels.

Reducing the reliance on real estate taxes, without question, is a key part of smoothing out or eliminating regional differences brought on by the state's widely varying social and economic differences. That won't be easy to do, but reducing the property tax share of education should be welcome everywhere, even in communities that now spend extra to guarantee a good product.

Growth has a price

Without warning, reality was staring members of the Fox Lake council square in the face: the case for growth and development paying its own way is hard to make.

The council is struggling to pave the way for annexation of a 30 acre site ticketed for a sizeable shopping center, a project Mayor Frank Meier has been insisting "will broaden our tax base and keep real estate taxes down for our citizens." So what's going wrong with the theory of worthwhile municipal expansion opponents of large scale growth are wont to call a myth?

Firstly, officials have run out the string on financial schemes involving taxpayers' money like TIF formation (tax increment financing), alternate bonding and creation of a special tax district to raise money for extending sewer and water lines. Discovering that these plans won't fly without a threat to the general corporate fund and financial stability, Fox Lake leaders turned to a plan to earmark income from future sales tax receipts to reimburse at some future date the impatient developer who said he is going to install utilities "at his own expense."

Here's where reality began to sink in. Just when this approach was looking pretty good, the question was raised that the proposed shopping center is going to cost Fox Lake a hefty price in need for additional police protection, road maintenance and so forth. Those are basic services taxpayers have come to expect, services which increasingly are being funded through sources other than real estate taxes, retail sales tax being the most popular source. At the same time council members realized they are chasing the same dollars, one trustee had the audacity to remark, "It will be a long time for tax relief to come to the people." Trustee Kenneth Buchardt, a no-nonsense type, added the clincher: "If we have to bury the rest of the village, this project may not be worth it."

Edgar to start slowly

by JOHN S. MATIJEVICH
State Representative

I have been asked how well Governor-Elect Jim Edgar will get along, or handle, the legislature. For one thing, Jim Edgar has considerable experience, 20 years, in state government.

Jim Edgar started in state government as a staff aide to the then Senate President Russ Arrington. It was a time when the legislature had little staff, but Sen. Arrington, a multi-millionaire, had a cadre of young, bright staff, some at his own expense. It was a valuable first experience in government to work for Arrington, known as a taskmaster.

After that, Edgar served briefly as a state representative, then as a legislative aide for Governor Jim Thompson, and finally as the Secretary of State. In all of those positions, Edgar worked with, and learned, the legislative process. His most valuable experience may have been the stint with Gov. Thompson. There, he learned the inner workings of the governor's office, at the same time handling matters in the legislature. Of course, as Secretary of State, too, Edgar was involved in budgetary and substantive issues in the legislature.

So, Edgar possesses all of the experience and expertise, and will have the availability of top-flight staff, to work with the legislature. He knows the legislative leaders on a first-name basis. Does all of this add up to an easy time of it for him? Not necessarily.

For openers, Edgar has already put "his foot in his mouth" on his "no new tax" pledge. During the campaign, Edgar was firm on his stand that the income tax surcharge should be extended. But, he was just as firm in the position that he would oppose any new taxes.

The election was barely over, and Edgar called taxes like the cigarette, liquor, and gasoline "user fees," not taxes. He forgot the election-time analogy "if it walks like

School with roots in log cabin era now history

by BILL SCHROEDER

One hundred thirty-seven years ago the holidays were extra festive for settlers in northwest Lake County. They were able to celebrate Christmas in their brand new log school built near Nippersink Creek not far from the highest point in the county.

A program featuring carol singing and readings attracted families from a wide area on both banks of the creek because the overlapping district drew students from Antioch Township in Lake County and Burton Township in McHenry County.

The people named their school Creek School. The district remained Creek School after the log cabin burned in 1882 and a one-room frame school was built at Wilmot Rd. and Main St., Spring Grove. This building served the rural district until 1924 when a new brick building was erected on Grass Lake Rd. and the school was renamed Lotus Country School in recognition of the famed lotus beds on nearby Grass Lake that attracted visitors from around the world.

While Christmas 1853 was a joyous occasion, there is a tinge of remorse in Christmas 1990 as the district ceased to exist Tuesday, Dec. 18, through a consolidation with nearby Fox Lake Elementary. Residents struggled for years to maintain the school, one of Lake County's smaller districts. The financial burden became too great to bear. With the lure of state merger incentives, school officials finally agreed to consolidate.

Elsewhere throughout rapidly urbanizing Lake County, residents take their local schools for granted. Seldom, if ever, do they consider how important the school is as a source of community pride and identity besides being a center of learning. Pre-Civil War pioneers recognized their school as a community center as did Lotus residents down to this day. The brick and mortar will remain, but the future won't be quite the same. Suburban residents don't have the emotional attachment to their school that householders in small districts do.

That's why Christmas will be different this year.

Rte. 45 positions curious

Editor:

The Illinois Dept. of Transportation (IDOT) announcement involving the widening of Rte. 45 between Rtes. 176 and 132 attributes the project to lobbying efforts of various governmental officials. Strangely, no officials who serve communities north of Rte. 132 appear to have participated.

Residents of Dist. 62 must wonder where their elected representative, State Rep. Robert Churchill, has been. This is particularly curious considering the well publicized campaign Churchill has waged for eight years supporting the Rte. 53 extension to Grayslake.

Numerous complaints have been raised regarding the poor design and unsafe Rte. 45 and Grass Lake Rd. intersection. Millburn School officials have expressed concern over school buses travelling the area, yet Rte. 45 appears destined to remain as it is.

Is there a mandate that a fixed number of residents must die on Rte. 45 before responsible action is taken?

Fort Sheridan needed

Editor:

Stop and think about the proposed sale of Fort Sheridan. Builders see a chance to get their hands on very valuable real estate with no thought being given to increased population, need for more schools, fire and police protection or other services as well as higher taxes.

While few want war, we must always be prepared for it. We must have induction and training centers as well as our standing army and navy.

At present Fort Sheridan and Great Lakes Naval Training Center are needed for training soldiers and sailors for action in Iraq.

Neal will earn thanks

Editor:

Last spring's hotly contested County Board race brought from the opposition a lot of negative campaigning and criticism of former Republican Party Chairman Robert Neal of Wadsworth.

Bob Neal was attacked by the tax spenders and condemnation block on the board of his fiscal restraint and open and fair negotiations position of Forest Preserve purchases. Bob had argued as a former municipal official, working with and for the cities and villages of Lake County, rather than against and with the adversary attitude of the former board.

His unanimous election by the new board as chairman of the rules committee and the endorsement by that committee at their first meeting of a new intergovernmental relations committee, is evidence of Neal's leadership and commitment for good government for Lake County.

In the coming years, the municipal officials of Lake County will have Bob Neal to thank for a county government willing to work with the cities and villages in solving their problems.

Local group causes release of prisoner

by KATIE KUEHNER
Lakeland Newspapers

A prisoner of conscience from the Dominican Republic was released due to the direct intervention of Lake County members of Amnesty International, a human rights organization.

"When the first two hundred letters came, the guards gave me back my clothes," the released prisoner wrote. "Then the next two hundred letters came, and the prison director came to see me. When the next pile of letters arrived, the director got in touch with his superior."

"The letters kept coming and coming: three thousand of them. The President was informed. The letters still kept arriving, and the President called the prison and told them to let me go."

Thousands of people are in prison because of their beliefs. Many are held without charge or trial. Torture and the death penalty are widespread. In many countries men, women, and children have "disappeared" after being taken into official custody. Still others have been killed without any pretense of legality. These human rights abuses occur in countries of widely differing ideologies.

Amnesty International (AI) is a worldwide movement of people acting on the conviction that governments must not deny individuals their basic human rights. The group seeks the most effective means of helping individuals whose rights have been violated.

AI states that constant action generates effective pressure. One well-written letter to a minister of justice is not pressure; ten letters are.

Benoit Delcourt of the local group in Palatine said, "More than 10,000 letters were written for our last prisoner who was just released. You just can't put 10,000 letters in the garbage. They just start piling up and they catch the attention of the officials higher up the ladder."

"Even a five or ten line letter that takes ten minutes to write written to a targeted official can have a tremendous effect. Because we're talking about sheer numbers of letters. They stick out like a sore thumb."

Louis Lombardo of the Lake Forest adoption group said that the group sponsors speeches from visitors of the targeted countries. "We also sponsor seminars about the death penalty in general, which is a major campaign that AI has."

"Essentially, AI attempts to prevent the abuse of those rights we hold most dear -- that sometimes we can take for granted here, but is not that common elsewhere."

For more information about the Lake Forest group, call Lombardo at (708) 367-0732 or (312) 234-3100. To learn more about the Palatine group, call Delcourt at (708) 885-5696 or (800) 323-0677. Anyone in Lake County is invited to attend either of these groups.

Gather plans

LIBERTYVILLE—Members of the Lake County Task Force on Affordable Housing are gathering plans for a prototype house no larger than 1,600 square feet. Plans will be submitted to Julie Adams of the Lake County Planning Dept. before the Jan. 9 meeting of the production committee headed by Roger Gatewood, Gurnee developer. The committee will recommend a plan along with analyzing construction and fee costs. The Task Force meets monthly at Cabriolet.

School merged

FOX LAKE—Lotus School as a separate district became history as the board of education completed business Monday night at its last meeting. Consolidation with nearby Fox Lake Elementary Dist. as approved by the Lake County Board of School Trustees became effective Tuesday, Dec. 18. Before asking for the final adjournment after 137 years of existence, President Marilyn Filiatreault noted, "I hope this little school will continue to be the highlight of this community."

Lakeland names managing editor

Claudia M. Lenart is the new managing editor of Lakeland Newspapers, announced Publisher and President William H. Schroeder.

Claudia M. Lenart

Lenart will have responsibility for day-to-day news coverage of Lakeland's 14 community newspapers serving Lake County and the Kenosha County Times, which is distributed throughout west Kenosha County, Wis.

A graduate of Iowa State University, Lenart is a native of Chicago. She has taken graduate studies in communications at Columbia College. Lenart formerly was managing editor of the Forest Park Review in Forest Park. Under her direction, that paper won several awards from the Illinois Press Association including a second place in general excellence and a first place in design.

"As a suburban journalist all her professional life in communications, Lenart is well qualified to direct news reporting in our rapidly urbanizing area of Lake County," stated Schroeder.

"Lenart has a keen sense of what suburban readers expect from their hometown community newspaper. She has innovative plans to expand the coverage and service of Lakeland Newspapers as we head into a new decade," Schroeder added.

Murder indictment expected on Skaggs

By MARY SULLIVAN
Lakeland Newspapers

A Lake County grand jury is expected to indict a Lake Villa man on murder charges, thereby transferring the case from Cook County courts, according to Lincolnwood Police Sgt. John Janeczek.

Eddie Skaggs, 30, is being held in Cook County Jail in lieu of $800,000 bond in connection with the beating death of Gail Koehler, 38, Lake Villa. He is currently charged with aggravated battery, aggravated kidnapping, parole and traffic violations.

"They're planning on murder on Skaggs," said Lincolnwood Police Sgt. John Janeczek of the anticipated charge.

Skaggs was ordered for a hearing, Dec. 12, before the Cook County State's Attorney's Office regarding the upgrading of charges against him after the victim died approximately two days after his arrest. The hearing was continued to Thursday, Jan. 3, while the Lake County State's Attorney's Office prepares to hand down

Nix liquor store

LINDENHURST—A proposed 135.27 acre residential and commercial development will not include a liquor or department store if it is to be annexed into the village. Murray Conzelman and L.B. Anderson, developers of the property located just east of the village limits, have reached accord with Lindenhurst officials, clearing the way for annexation negotiations to proceed. All recommendations made by the consulting village consultants, including one against building a liquor or department store, were accepted.

Plan water tower

LAKE VILLA—By next year, Lake Villa's name will be splashed across a new municipal water tower. The Lake Villa Board of Trustees unanimously approved a plan to purchase Wis. Central Railroad property to locate a 400,000 gallon water tower. The sale is contingent on an indemnification agreement by Wis. Central to assure that the area is clear of contamination.

Talks lease

MUNDELEIN—Countryside Fire Protection Dist. trustees discussed two agreements at their last meeting. The board approved sending a 10-year lease of the Deerpath fire station from the Village of Vernon Hills to the village with some details to be worked out. The board also agreed to buy land from a farmer who faced condemnation proceedings by the fire district.

Funding woes

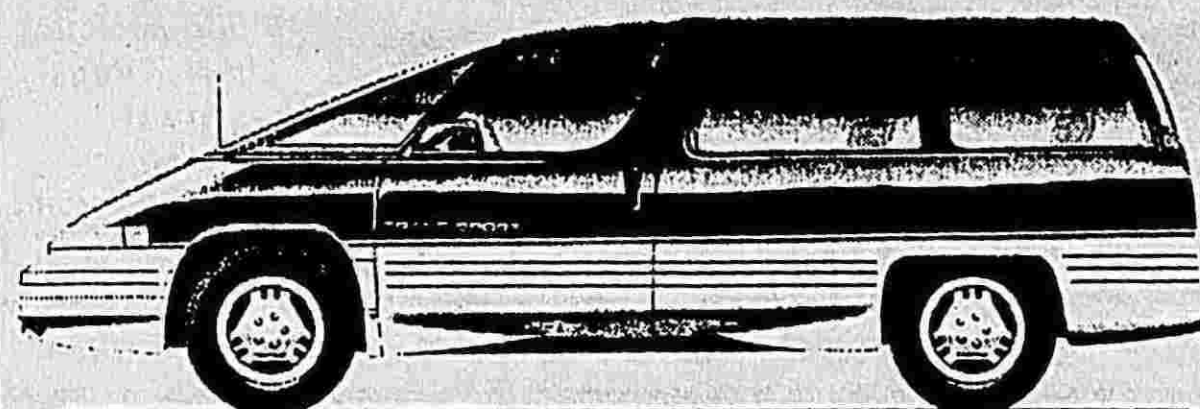

WADSWORTH—As in the previous years, Donald L. Hey entered with an optimistic attitude the months prior to possible funding of the wetlands project near Wadsworth. But, there was the same result. Hey, of director of Wetlands Research, Inc. gave Wadsworth residents an update of how the wetlands project is proceeding last week.

Starkey is running

MUNDELEIN—Richard Starkey, candidate for mayor two years ago, math teacher at Mundelein High School and basketball coach there for 17 years wants to return to the job of village trustee he held for eight years from 1981-89. He will be a candidate for one of four openings on the village board in the April election.

Help prevent vehicle fires by checking faulty wires

The two main causes of car fires, other than accidents, are faulty wiring and/or leaking fuel. Poor insulation on wires, causing a short, can start a fire if the circuit is improperly fused. Leaking fuel is the other culprit, according to Car Care Council. An important aspect of tune-up services is the inspection of all fuel lines and connections.

Increased fuel pressure on new cars, combined with higher under-hood operating temperatures, makes this a critical precautionary service.

Most car fires are caused by fuel line connections, generally at the fuel filter or the carburetor. Sometimes it's faulty material, even substandard fuel lines but, more often than not, it's merely a matter of the installer having failed to tighten connections properly.

Fuel injection requires higher fuel pressures, thereby requiring a top quality fuel line. As fuel injected engines grow older.

New Year's Eve 'Glitz'

Whether you celebrate the evening as the finale of the old or the kick-off for the new, this is the perfect time to dress up and entertain friends with my version of New Year's Eve Glitz.

Cheer the new year in with an array of exciting dishes—a wealth of appetizers. Do as much as you can in advance, then relax and ring in the new. Happy New Year!

Bubbling hot crab with bean sprouts

- Everyone loves a crab dish. Add this to your collection.
- 1 8 oz. pkg. cream cheese
 - 1 6 oz. pkg. frozen crab meat, cooked and drained
 - 1 Tbl. milk
 - 2 Tbl. minced onions
 - 2 Tbl. mayonnaise
 - 1 tsp. salt
 - dash pepper
 - 1/3 can bean sprouts, drained
 - 2 Tbl. chopped chives
 - 1/2 cup grated Parmesan cheese
 - 1/3 cup sliced almonds

Mix together all ingredients except Parmesan cheese and almonds. Bake at 350 degrees until it bubbles, 20 to 25 minutes. Top with cheese and almonds.

Serves 8 to 10

Four cheese pate

Good cold appetizer served with crackers, toast points or red and green apple wedges.

- 1 (8 oz.) pkg. cream cheese, softened
 - 2 Tbl. milk
 - 2 Tbl. sour cream
 - 3/4 cups chopped pecans, toasted
 - 2 (8 oz.) pkg. cream cheese, softened
 - 1 (4 1/2 oz.) pkg. Camembert cheese, softened
 - 1 (4 oz.) pkg. crumbled blue cheese, softened
 - 1 cup (4 oz.) shredded Swiss cheese, softened
- Garnish with pecan halves
Crackers, toast points or red and green apple slices

Line a 9-inch pie plate with plastic wrap; set aside. Combine first three ingredients in a small mixing bowl; beat at medium speed with an electric mixer until smooth. Spread into pie plate; sprinkle with chopped pecans.

Combine remaining cream cheese, Camembert cheese (including rind), blue cheese and Swiss cheese in a small mixing bowl; beat at medium speed with an electric mixer until smooth. Spoon into pie plate, and spread to edge. Cover with plastic wrap, and chill up to one week. To serve, invert onto serving plate; carefully peel away plastic wrap. Garnish with pecan halves, crackers, toast points or red and green apples slices.

Deviled mixed nuts

A bowl of these 'nummies' will disappear very quickly.

- 3/4 cup whole almonds
- 1 cup cashews
- 1 cup pecan halves
- 3 Tbl. butter
- 2 garlic cloves, crushed
- 1 tsp. Worcestershire sauce
- 2 tsp. curry powder
- pinch of red cayenne pepper

To blanch whole almonds, pour boiling water over nuts in a heat-proof bowl, leave a few minutes, then lift out. The skins will easily slip off. Preheat oven to 350 degrees. Place almonds, cashews and pecans in a bowl. Melt butter in a saucepan and stir in garlic, Worcestershire sauce, curry powder and red pepper. Drizzle butter mixture evenly over nuts and toss to coat evenly. Spread nuts on a baking sheet; bake 15 to 20 minutes, or until golden, stirring every 5 minutes to toast evenly. Remove from oven and cool. Store in an airtight container until ready to serve. Makes about three cups.

Bagna Cauda

Something new to try. Served warm with fresh vegetables. Delicious.

- 1/2 cup olive oil
- 1/2 cp butter
- 2 to 3 cloves garlic, minced
- 1 can anchovies, drained and chopped
- French bread, thinly sliced
- fresh vegetables

In a chafing dish combine first four ingredients. Simmer 5 minutes. Serve warm with raw broccoli, cauliflower, mushrooms, green pepper, etc. Hold vegetable piece in your fingers and swirl in the sauce. Hold a slice of bread under the vegetables to catch any drippings.

Serves 8 to 10.

Flaming Greek fondue

Don't singe your guests' eyebrows! A fun "icebreaker" and tasty treat.

Melt Kasseri cheese in a fondue dish in the oven. Remove when thoroughly melted. Bring to the table and place over a flame. Pour a small amount of cognac over the cheese and light. Serve flaming with bread sticks or raw vegetables.

Broiled onion squares

How to be a square and still have fun!

Remove crust from white bread. Quarter. Spread with mayonnaise. Place a small slice (thin) of onion on each square. Top with mustard. Spread on enough mayonnaise to cover. Broil until puffed and golden.

Hot cheese puffs

A tasty tidbit that uses up any extra egg whites you may have in your freezer. Puffs will be crisp on outside with cheese melted on the inside—heavenly.

- 3 cups sharp cheddar cheese, grated

- 1/4 cup flour

- 1/2 tsp. salt

- dash of pepper

- 5 egg whites,

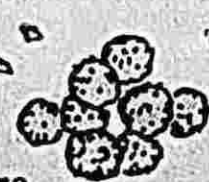

- at room temperature

- 1/2 cup unseasoned bread crumbs
- salad oil or shortening for deep-frying

Combine cheese, flour, salt and pepper; mix thoroughly. In a large bowl, beat egg whites until stiff peaks form when beaters are slowly raised. Gently fold in cheese mixture just until well combined with egg whites.

Shape into balls, using level tablespoon for each. Roll in bread crumbs on wax paper. If not serving right away, place in single layer on cookie sheet, cover and refrigerate (or freeze for longer periods).

Just before serving, heat salad oil (about 1 1/2 inch deep) in heavy skillet or electric frying pan (375 degrees). Deep fry cheese balls until golden, about 1/2 minute. Remove with a slotted spoon and drain on paper towels. Serve hot. Makes about 3 dozen puffs.

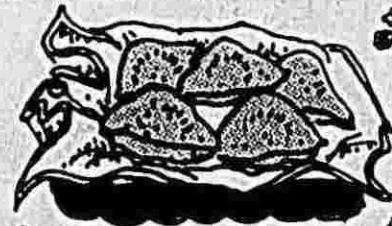

Spinach-cheese filo triangles

One of my favorites! This is my recipe for Greek Spanakopita, only made into appetizer form.

- 1/4 cup olive oil
- 1 medium onion, chopped
- 1 pkg. chopped spinach, drained (10 oz. frozen)
- 1/2 lb. feta cheese
- 6 oz. small curd cottage cheese
- 4 green onions
- 3 eggs, well beaten
- 1/4 cup bread crumbs
- Approximately 15 sheets filo dough
- Approximately 1/4 lb. butter, melted
- 1 Tbl. fresh dill, minced or
- 1 tsp. dried dill weed

Saute onion in hot oil; add spinach and simmer. Crumble feta cheese into small pieces and blend with cottage cheese, dill and green onion. Stir in eggs. Combine spinach mixture and bread crumbs. Mix thoroughly with cheese mixture. Cut filo into strips for triangles. Brush filo with melted butter. Fill each strip with 1 teaspoon of filling. Fold "flag" style, end-over-end to form a triangle. Bake on greased cookie sheet for 10 to 15 minutes at 400 degrees or until puffed and lightly browned.

Photographer focuses on Arctic wildlife

by CLAUDIA M. LENART
Lakeland Newspapers

In a normal world for Theodore Gary, he has endured frigid temperatures, snowstorms, bear attacks and even lying for hours in a heap of seagull dung waiting for the right moment to photograph fresh-water seals. Despite the uncomfortable conditions, Gary is much happier as a wildlife photographer than he was in his previous career as a securities trader.

The polar bear series was Gary's first at the Orca Art Gallery. Gary said he likes to talk with visitors to the gallery and has discovered that many people don't realize the work that goes into a photo. "People only see the end product, but for every photo there's 15 to 20 hours of hard work...if you get one picture on a roll, your lucky," Gary said.

"I've waited a long time to do this," said Gary. "It's like a drug, I'm addicted."

Gary, 34, has been taking wildlife photos since his college days, but it wasn't until 1986 that he left his lucrative career as a trader to venture into wildlife photography full-time.

"I always wanted to be a wildlife photographer, but there's not a lot of money in it. I worked for 12 years in securities and I finally said, 'I've had enough of this now.' It was tough at first," said Gary, a Lake Forest native, who now lives on a farm in Richmond. Although he said he's not getting rich off his new career yet, it is paying the bills.

Theodore Gary's collection of wildlife prints, "Northern Focus," will be showing at the Orca Art Gallery, 300 W. Grand

Friends

Wildlife photographer Theodore Gary relaxes with dogs on his Richmond farm. He plans to document the Iditarod dogsled race in March.

The best

This closeup of a bull caribou is one of Theodore Gary's favorite photos. A showing of Gary's work, "Northern Focus," will be on exhibit at the Orca Art Gallery, 300 W. Grand, Chicago, through Jan. 6.

Ave., Chicago through Jan. 6. This is Gary's second show. It features 28 of Gary's best color prints which include shots of bald eagles, caribou, bears, and the only fresh-water seals in North America.

The series was shot in the Arctic tundra where Gary spent a total of eight weeks August through November trekking the elusive wildlife. He flew from Chicago to Lake Illimna in Southwest Alaska. From there he traveled 100 miles by bush plane to set up camp at the foot of a mountain.

The Arctic is a land ruled by the animals, but that doesn't mean the creatures are easy to find. "I had to look for everything except the ground squirrels. I had to sneak up on everything. They're not used to seeing people."

Gary spent three days hiking down the Illimna River trying to get a shot of grizzly bears feeding on salmon. "They finally found me, but it was pitch dark."

The grizzly bears didn't threaten Gary that night, but he wasn't always that lucky. He carries a gun for protection on wildlife excursions and he said he has great respect for the animals. "I have had some close calls," said Gary.

One of those close calls occurred in Northern Canada when Gary was documenting the annual migration of the polar bears. Gary got trapped on top of a cage by an aggressive bear, but before he attempting to scare the bear away, he took some photos. He then threw shells at the bear, which only aggravated the bear further. Next he shot deer slugs at the bear's feet which distracted the bear long enough for Gary to run into a small shack where he was cooped up for four days until his aggressor gave up.

The polar bear series was Gary's first to be exhibited at the Orca Art Gallery. Gary said he likes to talk with visitors to the gallery and he's discovered that many people don't realize the work that goes into a photo. "People only see the end product, but for every photo there's 15 to 20 hours of hard work...If you get one picture on a roll, you're lucky."

Gary's next adventure will be in March when he plans to be the first photographer to capture the 1,200-mile Iditarod dogsled race from start to finish. He hopes to find a sponsor for that undertaking. Next year, he plans to race in the Iditarod. "There's never a dull moment," he said.

'Christmas Carol' first class

by TOM WITOM

The Goodman Theater's production of Charles Dickens' timeless "A Christmas Carol," which runs through Dec. 30, is one of the hottest holiday tickets in town.

Many of the performers are veterans: William Norris returns for his 12th season as the miserly Ebenezer Scrooge. His journeys with the spirits of Christmas Past, Present and Yet to Come are as harrowing as ever.

And the transformation in his attitude on Christmas ("Bah-humbug!") to world's No. 1 humanitarian is a wonder to behold. In the end, it's hard to believe he's the same man who once declared that "anyone with a Merry Christmas on his lips should be boiled in his own plum pudding and buried with a stake of holly through his heart."

Other delightful performances, guaranteed to warm the coldest hearts, come from Robert Scogin as Bob Cratchit and Dennis Kennedy as Mr. Fezziwig.

A Visit To See The Christmas Lights In Chicago

by JIM WARNKEN
PRESIDENT, NORTH STAR TRAVEL, INC.

Some of my fondest memories of Christmas include going "Downtown" with my grandmother to see the Christmas decorations on State Street. I remember trying to push through the crowds to see the window displays at Carson's and Marshall Field's. We would have lunch in the restaurant at Marshall Field's at the base of an immense Christmas tree.

Last weekend I thought I would drive down to Chicago and see those Christmas lights again.

Much of what I remember was still the same. There were still the crowds around the windows at Field's and Carson's. Vendors were selling anything from hot cider and coffee to roasted chestnuts and popcorn.

Downtown Chicago has, however, taken on two personalities.

The State Street area still retains almost a carnival atmosphere at Christmas time with the smell of food, the sound of street musicians, and the crowds of shoppers.

A few blocks away, though, is North Michigan Ave. with its more sophisticated ambience and stores with names like Nieman Marcus, Saks 5th Ave, Tiffany's and the like. You will find no street vendors and few musicians save for the Salvation Army. I did see one little old lady in front of Water Town Place playing her accordion and signing Christmas carols as loud as she could.

Tiny white lights adorn the trees. The store windows do have a Christmas theme, but it's more likely to depict Mom unwrapping her new mink coat rather than a scene from the Nut Cracker Suite. The streets are crowded with lines of elegant horse drawn carriages.

If you want to experience Chicago's Christmas for yourself, plan on staying for the weekend. I stayed at the Sheraton Plaza a block off of Michigan for a weekend special rate of $89 per room. Park your car at the lot across the street rather than at the hotel and save about $10 in parking fees. The Lenox House at Rush and Ontario has a suite for $69 on weekends, and the Lenox House Restaurant offers the best values of anywhere in the downtown area. I had the chicken shish kebab dinner, including soup, salad, coffee and dessert for only $8.95.

Deerhunters judging Santa's reindeer by the pound

As the sleigh, deer and Santa appear at the Christmas tree, deerhunters may be judging the animal's weight as they do in the field during hunting season. Here's a quick rule of thumb on Illinois white-tail deer. A 100 pound animal may dress down to 80 pounds, a 150 pounder to about 120 pounds, and the dressed carcass of a 200 pounder may produce about 120 pounds of tablefare.

With a 50,000 animal harvest in the first three day segment of the firearm hunting season, there will be plenty of Illinois venison this year. Out white-tail population is increasing annually. Fifty or so years ago they were numbered among the Illinois endangered species. We can credit our conservation department for their return however national human population growth and loss of open spaces creates new endangered species at a rapid rate. Currently 3,600 U.S.

domestic species are awaiting classification as endangered. This includes both flora and fauna. We talk about the growing scarcity studies of the bald eagle, blue whales, timber wolves or grizzly bears, but classifications also include such little known life as Winkler catus, Leedy's root rose, darters, and Pecos pupfish. These pending studies would cost about $60,000 each for completion, well beyond realistic budget possibilities, and the value gained in debatable.

Christmas is a magic time for children of all ages. Today's younger generation have lost the opportunity for frequent outdoor experiences in their metropolitan structure of living, which includes about 60 percent of our state population. So while Santa and his "workers" have kids in mind, perhaps we should increase our efforts to make them frequent and, friendly outdoor visitors.

Today's youth will be tomorrow's decision makers on conservation questions. Their judgements will be governed by knowledge and experience which others make possible during their formative years. The greatest gift you can give is your own time, interest and knowledge, limited as it may be.

Such an interest will help those you know and love to understand nature's benefits and needs. Help them realize that destruction, contamination and waste of natural resources will ultimately place man himself at the head of the endangered species list.

Illinois Conservation's Kids for Conservation program, introduced just over a year ago, now records over 100,000 youth members between three and 15 years old. This is a state effort to inform young folks and their parents of benefits derived from sound wildlife management programs, and new members are joining daily. Call (312)814-2070 for details.

Holiday travel peaks this time of year as annual family get-togethers occur, and many drive to do this. Though only three percent of all gasoline used goes for pleasure travel, fuel prices have escalated drastically. One way for economy in fuel and dollars is to combine trips into preplanned packages rather than single runs. Slow driving with 55 mph vs 65 saves about 20 percent in fuel consumption. Carpool whenever possible, taking a friend cuts the expense in half. Getting familiar with the outdoors and related equipment will take a new dimension in January as the major boating, outdoor and travel shows will open their doors to display their recreational products and services.

The Chicago Boat, Sport and RV show opens Jan. 16, 1991 at McCormick Place on the lake. The Fox Valley Outdoor Show runs for three days at Pheasant Run beginning Friday, Jan. 18, 1991.

'Harvey's' really at Apollo

"Harvey," a fun-loving six-foot white rabbit, must be seen to be believed.

wrestled with reality for 30 years—and finally won. Arney does a fine job

Louise who must learn to cope with her brother's oddball behavior. Also outstanding is Robert Breuler as the doctor who is taken in by Dowd's strange friend.

"Harvey" is scheduled to run through Feb. 24 at the Apollo, 2540 N. Lincoln Ave. It's solid family entertainment.

Memorabilia

Past holiday entertainment hits are still great film viewing this year. See "The Miracle on 34th St.," "It's a Wonderful Life," "Scrooged," "The Christmas Story," "Holiday Inn," "White Christmas" and "Christmas in Connecticut" either when they play during the late show on tv (consult your TV Guide) or rent them at your local video store.

Another oldie but goodie is "Meet Me In St. Louis."

Critic's Choice

Yet don't go to Chicago's Apollo Theater for the Steppenwolf production of this enduring 1944 comedy classic by Mary Close expecting to lay eyes on this unusual creature. His presence is felt, all right, and you'll see doors open and close and you may even catch a glimpse of his silhouette.

But Harvey, the confidant and long-time drinking companion of Elwood P. Dowd, is invisible.

Randall Arney plays Dowd, the simplistic, good-natured boozier who says he convincing the audience that he really is the only one who's not crazy.

'Days of Thunder' car slated for auto show

More than 150 vehicles customized by car and truck owners in the Milwaukee area, across Wisconsin and from northern Illinois will be on display at the "World of Wheels" Pabst Custom 6 to 12, and free for children 11 and under.

Entries include customs, street rods, street machines, sports cars, competition cars, trucks, and 4x4s. Many are painted in bright year. Painted in flashy hues, customized with plush interiors, these children's toys of the 1930s to '50s have become hot collectibles valued as high as $50,000 and more.

A top show feature will be the Mello Yello Chevy Lumina stock car that Tom Cruise drove in the movie, "Days of Thunder," which was about NASCAR racing.

The 650 horsepower care with all the decals, will bring back the flavor of the movie, with its speeds of 200 m.p.h., its drama of man-to-man combat on the track, and its tragedy in the huge crash scene. Cruise conceived the movie idea after he and his racing mentor Paul Newman visited Daytona. Nearly 250 hours of film were shot to capture the best action for the two-hour movie.

Talented, dark and handsome Billy Hufsey, who plays street gang member "Emilio" on the NBC-TV/Columbia Pictures Television's "Days of our Lives" series will appear at the show from 1 to 4 p.m. and from 7 to 9 p.m., on Saturday and from 1 to 4 p.m. on Sunday.

Prior to this role, Hufsey became popular across the United States as Christopher Donlon on the tv series, "Fame." He had guest appearances on the tv shows, including "Rags to Riches," "O'Hara," "Married With Children" and "Webster."

For the kids; costumed cartoon characters Fred Flintstone and Barney Rubble will meet and greet the little ones from 7 to 9 p.m. Friday, 1 to 4 p.m. and 7 to 9 p.m. Saturday and 1 to 4 p.m. Sunday.

For adults, the Wisconsin Calendar Girls will hold preliminary competitions for the American Dream Calendar Pageant, followed by a fashion show, at 7:30 p.m. Friday, and at 2 p.m.

and 7:30 p.m. Saturday. The finals will be at 2 p.m. on Sunday. Winners will go to Atlantic City for the semi-finalists, and those winners will go to Las Vegas for the national pageant.

Musical entertainment will be offered both Friday and Saturday night. The custom auto show is presented by International Productions, Inc., of Louisville, Ky., and sponsored by Pabst Blue Ribbon Beer. Show director is Joe Konkel of Joe Konkel and Assocs., Muskego.

Billy Hufsey

Auto Show Friday to Sunday, Jan. 11, 12 and 13, at State Fair Park.

Show hours are from 6 to 11 p.m. Friday, noon to 11 p.m. Saturday, and noon to 7 p.m. Sunday. The show will be held in the north, south and east exhibit halls. Admission is $6.50 for adults, $2 for children from colors with jazzy decorations. Some are displayed with mannequins or other artifacts to create a scene from the '50s or another bygone era. Cars from as early as the 1920s appear in the show.

209-39 WATERNBACH
By Landmark Designs

Every Victorian embellishment the mind can imagine is put into play in the exterior of the thoroughly contemporary Waternbach. Richly embellished covered porches, wrap across most of the front of the home, while turrets and gables are treat for the eyes at every turn.

Inside, only the wicker room reflects the Victorian theme, but this room, too, has a modern twist. Even the grandest of Victorian mansions didn't boast a spa, not to mention an adjoining exercise room. Simulating the moist climate of the tropics, the wicker room provides a natural environment for heat-loving plants, and parrots as well.

Unique to this home, the kitchen and the entryway have vaulted ceilings. Over the octagon-shaped eating nook the ceiling is even higher, stretching up into the window-lined turret overhead. With windows at ground level, and another row above, the light in this room provides such an instant pick-me-up that its owners may be able to give up coffee.

Food preparation space is ample for multiple cooks, with range and oven located in the work island and additional counter space in three additional areas. Having a trash recycling center right there in the middle of everything makes recycling tasks easy to carry through.

Fire lovers can indulge their passion in three separate locations -- fireplaces in the living room and master suite, and the woodstove in the family room. Corner window seats in the living room and master suite invite you to curl up with a good book.

Another unique area is located in the master suite -- a circular sitting room, partially encircled by a captain's walk balcony. Stairs from here lead up yet another level to an observatory. The master suite also has a walk-in closet and two lavatories, one inside the water closet and the other outside.

Two of the upstairs bedrooms feature wide balconies and the other has a step-in closet. While the home is designed without an attached garage, it does have a workshop area that could be converted to a garage. A large attic space is accessed through a stairway next to the utility room.

For a study plan of the WATERNBACH (209-39), send $5.00 to: Landmark Designs, P.O. Box 2307, Eugene, OR 97402. (Be sure to specify plan name & number when ordering.) Designers, Architects and readers with plans they would like right there in the middle of everything makes recycling tasks easy to carry through.

YOUR HOROSCOPE

by Charles King Cooper

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Troublesome undercurrents affect close relations. A family member may get on your nerves, but the week will bring serenity — and romance. Misunderstandings are possible regarding career interests. Unexpected changes may upset your schedule, but your social life blossoms.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Don't go overboard in trying to impress others. All you have to do is be yourself. This week brings good career developments. A family member could be manipulative. Watch diet and health upsets. Travel, romance and distant interests are favored.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) You may be somewhat nervous about a romantic situation, but doubts should ease toward week's end. Enjoy quiet times together. Avoid confrontations about money. Interruptions interfere with daytime socializing, but later the way is clear for happy times.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) A career opportunity could arise when you least expect it. Good will makes others want to help you. This week brings fortunate developments. Avoid a contest of wills with a loved one. A distant concern turns out better than you anticipated. Enjoy romantic fun.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) A friend is set in his ways. Watch credit card spending. Avoid disputes about money. Invite company over this week. You'll iron out difficulties that arise now with a loved one. Words of love have a soothing effect. Forgive and forget past slights.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) Watch out for shrewd operators. Restlessness impedes work efforts, but evening hours may bring a nice work or money development. This week is your best time for happy moments with a loved one. Don't mix business and pleasure. Charm brings you dividends.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) Listen to a friend's common sense. Don't be argumentative. A family member's ambivalent attitude creates tension. Be flexible. Don't fight with a friend about money. New career ideas are good, but work performance tends to be uneven. Watch mental strain.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) Turn your attention to intellectual interests. Avoid career disputes. Finances need careful watching now. Romance is iffy. Inner resentments could build up. Don't give way to frustration. Be cool and calm. Family concerns may be troublesome later.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Social life is active, but know when to slow down. Lapse into quiet without lapsing into depression. Think positive thoughts. Employees are cooperative, but competitors make their presence felt. Extravagance could leave you with some regrets.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) Watch for faulty information. Don't take things for granted. You may have mixed feelings about a career venture. Weigh decisions carefully. Conflicting advice may make you uncertain. Domestic interests are favored, but watch spending when out for a good time.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) A reasonable approach helps you to avert trouble with a close tie. Discuss issues calmly. Friends and money don't mix favorably. New moneymaking ideas are worthwhile, but watch arguments with co-workers. Restlessness impedes concentration. Be tactful with close ties.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) Seek less costly ways of having fun. Avoid confrontations about money. Get sufficient rest. Don't burn the candle at both ends. Think before you act regarding a domestic concern. Impulsive judgment leads to trouble. Watch a tendency to overdo this week.

Showdown time for NSC leaders

'Cats aim to hand Pats loss

No doubt about it, it's showdown time in the North Suburban Conference.

When basketball camp opened in November, the experts picked Stevenson, Libertyville and Warren as the teams to beat in the NSC. A month later, that has held true to form. And on Dec. 21 and 22, five contests will decide the first round leader before the teams break for Christmas tournaments.

Stevenson, 5-0, 8-0 overall, is at Libertyville for a 7:30 p.m. game Dec. 21. Warren is at NSC second-division team Zion-Benton Dec. 21 before hosting Libertyville Dec. 22.

The Wildcats, 6-2, 4-1, used a strong inside attack to pull away from Lake Forest, 61-46. An 18-8 third quarter run proved to be the difference for the winners.

"We were able to put pressure on top and that opened up the middle. We were able to get good percentage shots because of it, especially in the second half," Libertyville Coach Max Sanders said.

Sanders said the Wildcats also controlled the rebounding in the third quarter.

Brian Davis led the inside attack with 19 points, guards John Garwal and John Cimaroni combined for 25 points. "We went with two small guards because we knew Lake Forest would press," Sanders said.

The Wildcats enjoyed a 14-2 edge in free throws, 26-6 in free throw tries.

Mike Ariva led Lake Forest with 19 points.

Unbeaten Stevenson is coming off a second half surge of its own in a win over Zion-Benton, 82-55. A third quarter run of 26-14 and 23-13 in the fourth stanza decided this one. Zion, looking for an upset, led in the first half.

Chris Coleman, one of the top scorers in the Chicago area, had 21 points Ronnie Smith had 12 counters.

The Warren-Libertyville game could develop into an inside-outside classic struggle. Warren hit 40 percent from the three-point line in the first five games and has increased its marksmanship led by Steve Karolewicz. The senior hit five-of-seven threes as the Blue Devils pulled away from Mundelein for a 72-53 win. Karolewicz, a senior, finished with 17 points while Ian Whittington, also a senior, had 18.

"Karolewicz has been hot from three-points, but it seems everybody has been making shots from the three-point line," Sanders said.

Showdown at-a-glance

STEVENSON AT LIBERTYVILLE

Date: Friday, Dec. 21
Time: 7:30 p.m.
Records: Stevenson 8-0 overall, 5-0 NSC. Libertyville, 6-2 overall, 4-1 NSC.

Coaches: Max Sanders, Libertyville; Ken Johnson, Warren.

What to watch for: how Libertyville guards Stevenson's leading scorer, Chris Coleman, who is averaging more than 20 points a game. How Stevenson defends against Libertyville's strong inside game, which dominated a solid Lake Forest contingent on the boards. Libertyville is paced by Brian Davis.

LIBERTYVILLE AT WARREN

Date: Saturday, Dec. 22
Time: 7:30 p.m.
Place: Warren Twp. High School.
Records: Warren comes into weekend with 6-2 overall record, 4-1 in the NSC. Coaches: Warren Darrel Bader, Libertyville: Sanders.

What to watch for: how Libertyville tries to stop Warren's outside shooting from three-point range. Senior Steve Karolewicz is coming off five-for-seven second half against Mundelein. Warren's Ben Bongratz (six-foot, six inches) and Ian Whittington (6-4) against Brian Davis.

Balance helps Blue Devils

by STEVE PETERSON

When Steve Karolewicz reports for Warren Twp. High School basketball practice, he knows he will probably excel in at least one drill.

"We have what is called the Marshall drill where we shoot 20 three-pointers," Karolewicz said.

Karolewicz showed perfect practiced makes perfect as he hit five-of-seven three pointers to ignite the Blue Devils to a 72-53 trouncing of Mundelein.

"It was my best three-point effort of the year. I try to set my feet and get ready to shoot it," Karolewicz said.

Karolewicz was Mr. Outside for the Blue Devils, scoring 17 points as Warren improved to 6-2 overall, 4-1 in the NSC. The Blue Devils, Stevenson and Libertyville will be in a first round "big three" clash in the NSC this week. After traveling to Zion-Benton Dec. 21, Warren hosts Libertyville Dec. 22. The Wildcats, also 4-1, are coming off a win over Lake Forest.

In addition to his marksmanship, Karolewicz, a 5-11 guard, grabbed seven rebounds.

Fellow guard Craig Shelton did his part in getting the ball to Karolewicz or blocking out Mustangs.

Warren has used the three-pointer often this season. "It is a big weapon for us. It opens up the inside game," Karolewicz said.

While Karolewicz was doing his thing from beyond the blue-painted line at Warren High, Ian Whittington was proving to be a force inside. He scored 18 points to lead the team and had nine rebounds as Warren won the battle of the boards 34-30.

Whittington admires two pretty strong big men who dominate the NBA paint, Moses Malone and Charles Barkley. "I like Barkley because he is only 6-6 and runs the ball up the court," Whittington said.

"Ian did a fine job offensively and defensively," Warren Coach Darrel Bader said.

Warren led just 30-29 at halftime. "We just did the things we were doing in the first half, but we just did them better," Warren Coach Bader said.

Warren "held" Mundelein's leading scorer, Shawn Harlan, to 21 points.

"Harlan had his shots, they just didn't

'It's mine'

Mundelein's Shawn Harlan pulls down a rebound in North Suburban Conference game against Warren. Warren's Dave Huntington (30) and Craig Shelton (32) look on. Harlan grabbed this rebound and scored 21 points, but Warren won with a second-half spurt 72-53. Warren is at Zion-Benton Dec. 21 and hosts Libertyville Dec. 22.

Life's lessons can put basketball in perspective

by STEVE PETERSON
Lakeland Newspapers

In the pre-Christmas stage of the basketball season, scouting reports, x's and o's and team conflicts dominate a mentor's mind.

But for Richmond-Burton Coach Scott Brunswick, there were other priorities last week. Yes, he was concerned his Rockets slipped from 4-1 to 4-3 with losses to Grant and Huntley.

But just before the Dec. 11 game at Grant, something happened to make anyone put basketball in a proper perspective.

"The Fox Lake police came to the locker room and told me my father had had a heart attack," Brunswick said.

in the hands of freshman coach Kelly Noller and athletic director Lou Ramirez.

"A fan was nice enough to take me to Condell Hospital," Brunswick said.

Over Time

On Sunday, Brunswick said his dad, Jerry, received good news from Condell and was expected home the next day.

Basketball notebook: former Warren Twp. High School standout Terri Ingalls has been declared a medical redshirt at University of Wisconsin-Parkside. Ingalls, an all-conference performer in softball and basketball for Warren, injured a knee in the season opener against Lewis. Clarence Fossier, who is the Bears' consulting physician, may be one of the doctors working on the operation. Ingalls, a 1988 graduate who was on the Elite Eight Warren squad, averaged 10 points a game last year for Parkside.

In other college basketball news, Lake Zurich graduate Lisa Foss scored 20 points, but the Northern Illinois Huskies fell to Michigan State for their first loss of the year. NIU was rated No. 20 by the USA Today.

A sign read "The Lion Sleep Tonight" above section 124a in the Pontiac Silverdome Sunday night.

Below the sign, there were plenty of Chicago Bear fans ready to cheer their team on to its 11th victory against the lowly Detroit Lions, 4-9. They were clad in orange, white and blue clothing and ready to shout "Let's Go Bears" when the visitors entered the 80,000 seat stadium.

Chicago took a 7-0 lead on a Brad Muster one-yard run but 21 unanswered points by Detroit left the folks in row 22 and 21 shaking their heads. Nineteen of the Bears fans hailed from the Grayslake area, taking in a package offered by the Grayslake Community Park Dist.

The seats were fine and the trip, the park's first venture outside of Chicago, was a smooth one.

But the Bears secondary did not do its part as Detroit QB Rodney Peate was having best day of his career in a 38-21 Lions win. The park district crowd was impressed with the late-game efforts of Peter Tom Willis, who came in and completed seven-of-eight passes.

Grant stops Wauconda, faces league challenges

Grant stands at the crossroads of its season, while Wauconda has a pre-season goal within reach as the two boys basketball squads prepare for upcoming games.

It was Grant that secured a 67-46 Northwest Suburban Conference victory when the two clubs met in Wauconda last week. Both head coaches have their sights set on bigger games, however.

"We're at the crossroads," Grant coach Tom Maple said. "At 6-3 (2-1 in the NSC), we feel we're coming along. We've got some of the tougher part of our schedule, and we hope to get some perspective on how good we are."

"I think we're executing pretty well, but we haven't been getting the ball into the hole," Maple continued. "Our shot selection is pretty good, but our shooting percentage is down."

Rick Twarowski, John Elduke and Damian Vela are leading Grant with averages of 15, 14 and 10 points, respectively. Elduke is averaging eight assists, while Vela is pulling down eight rebounds per contest.

Grant is readying itself for the 16-team Hampshire tourney, which starts Dec. 22.

Grant will play the hosts in the first round.

Wauconda coach Dave Gardner said his team (3-5 overall and 2-2 in the NWSC) is on the right track.

"I think we've got a number of things to work on but we're reaching some goals," Gardner said. "We wanted to win five games before Christmas, and we've got a chance to reach that this week. Overall, I'm pretty pleased."

"We haven't been producing as well as we can offensively, and we need to work hard defensively," Gardner added. "We'd like to keep teams between 50-60 points."

Wauconda will host Richmond Burton Dec. 21.

In the Grant-Wauconda matchup, Wauconda's Scott Suhr led all scorers with 18 points. Elduke paced Grant with 17 points.

Wauconda trailed after one period, 16-8, but trailed by just three points early in the fourth quarter. Grant then held Wauconda scoreless for nearly five minutes en route to the win.

"We were within three points, and then they called a good timeout and came back out like gangbusters," Gardner said.

Blue Devils

fall for him," Mundelein Coach Dennis Kessel said.

"We lost our composure and Karolewicz did what he wanted to. We tried to put three different players on him. We weren't getting the help from the baseline in the second half," Kessel said.

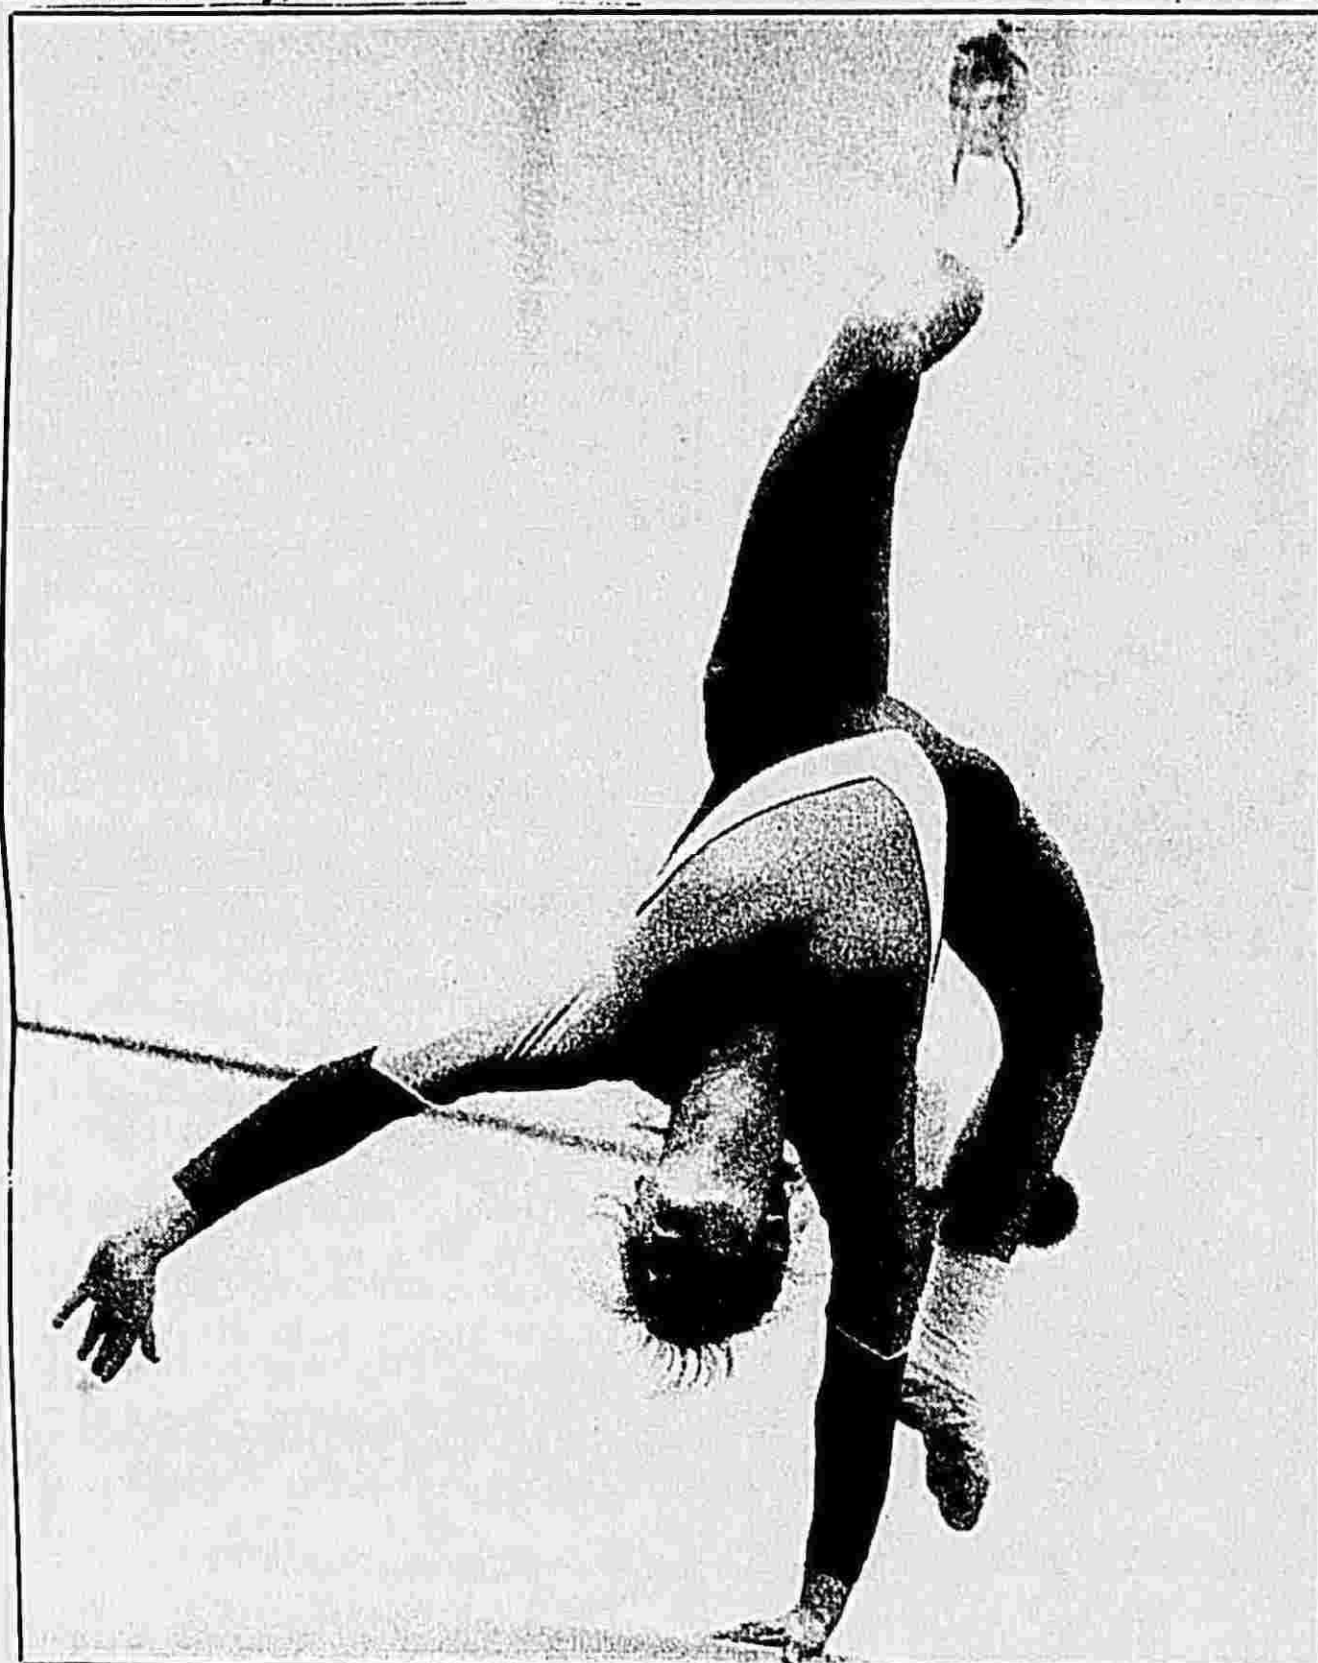

Both teams hit the .500 mark in field goal shooting in the first quarter as Warren led 17-15 after eight minutes. Mundelein led 22-18 on three-pointer by Harlan. Warren had six free throws and a three-pointer by Shelton to take a 27-25 lead. Whittington's tip-in gave the Blue Devils a 29-28 lead.

The second-half shooting barrage began with a six-for-seven spree by Warren. Two three-pointers by Karolewicz put the home team ahead 46-35. The lead grew to 15 points, but Harlan gave the Mustangs, 2-6, 1-4 in the NSC, hope with a three-pointer to cut the lead to 12 at 54-42 after three.

Alvin Cruz, who had 14 points, trimmed the gap to 10. Karolewicz then ended any comeback hopes for the visitors with two more three-pointers to settle the issue.

But is it?

Karolewicz's brother, Mike, is working on his basketball skills as an eighth grader at Woodland Junior High.

Second, fourth quarters key to Round Lake wins

Round Lake used a strong second quarter to pull away from Johnsbury and maintain its perfect record.

The Panthers then used a strong finish to notch a non-conference win at McHenry.

"Johnsbury is a very good team but we were able to get the ball inside," Round Lake Coach Bob Ward said of his team's 77-52 win.

On the other end of the court, the Skyhawks were not able to use their top weapon, Dan DuFour. He was held to six points and Rick Van Every, another strength in Johnsbury's five-game win streak to start the year, had 10.

"Illg (Wally) guarded DuFour and did a real good job on him. He is becoming a very good defensive player," Ward said.

Dave Burton had 18 points to lead the Panther. Mike Bragg came off the bench both nights to score in double figures, tallying 15 against Johnsbury. Ill also had 15.

Against McHenry, a 24-15 run in the final stanza settled matters to give Round Lake an 8-0 start for the year.

Round Lake, which is at Lake Zurich Dec. 21 in Northwest Suburban Conference play, trailed by five points late in the third quarter.

Burton led Round Lake with 16 points, Pat Lejman had 11 and Horn had his second nine-point game.

Rams shock Panthers, girls race up-for-grabs

The Grayslake girls basketball team did its best to give the rest of the Northwest Suburban Conference an early Christmas present last week.

The Rams knocked off Round Lake 51-46 to hand the Panthers their first conference loss in more than a year. But Grant could not take advantage of it, losing to Marengo but Lake Zurich did as the Bears downed Wauconda.

"It was a nice win for us. I was pleased with the way the kids played," Grayslake Coach Brad Larson said.

Grayslake used a strategy of matching Round Lake press for press on defense. "They key was Brooks (Rachel) and King (Joy) both get so many points off their press. If you don't give them the turnovers, they don't get the opportunities," Larson said.

"We did not shoot the ball well. We were 19-for-75 from the field and six for 20 from the free-throw line," Round Lake Coach Gary Edge said.

Grayslake was led in scoring by Allison Waldenstrom. The sophomore had 16 points. Emily Woemmel, returning from an injury, had 13 and Nikki Jeffrey had nine.

Christy Zink led the Panthers with 17 points. Tammy Bourque had 10 for Round Lake. The win was Grayslake's second of the season and came on the heels of a 54-35 shellacking at the hands of Johnsburg.

"Johnsburg surprised me. I knew they were big and fast but they may be playing the best ball on the conference now," Larson said.

Waldenstrom led Grayslake with 16 points.

Johnsburg led 21-7 after one quarter and never looked back. The Skyhawks kept pace with Round Lake by thumping Marian Central 72-59.

Grant, meanwhile, fell to Marengo 51-48 despite a strong start.

"It was our third game in three days and we played pretty well in the first half but faded in the second half. By the fourth quarter, we were pretty flat-footed," Grant Coach John Schad said.

Debbie Selle, a senior forward, led Grant with 11 points.

Senior Tami Fischer has been Grant's leading scorer in a 5-7 start, averaging better than 20 points a game.

The Bulldogs downed McHenry 47-45 in a non-conference tilt before the loss to Marengo. Melissa Raasch had 10 points. Grant led 13-4 after one and then held on as Selle made key fourth quarter free throws.

"I think we can be a pretty strong team if we're able to put it all together. We've been hurt by sickness and injury," Schad said.

Also in the NWSC, Lake Zurich won its third straight conference game with a 45-36 win over Wauconda.

Hot 102.3 personalities celebrate the season

Lake County's Hot 102.3 FM's air personalities are celebrating the upcoming holiday season. These Hot 102.3 Disc Jockeys made Christmas Visits to a number of area shelters to bring the spirit of Christmas to children who might have been left out.

The spirit of Christmas came to these children in the form of "Hot 102.3 Bears," and was delivered by Hot 102.3 air personalities, JoJo Martinez and Jym Geraci. "We wanted to provide these children with the Christmas they might not have received this year," states Susan Banach, of WXLC Hot 102.3. According to Hot 102.3 WXLC, the stuffed animals were to be delivered to over 350 children, from A Safe Place, Allendale, and the Department of Family Services of Lake County.

Banach states, "These children truly need the spirit of Christmas to help brighten their lives. I'm glad we're able to help." Hot 102.3 visited the shelters between Dec. 18 and Dec. 21.

Health Dept. conducts survey

Lake County Health Department Animal Wardens will conduct door-to-door surveys on the following dates in specific Lake County areas:

Week of Jan. 7, Village of Round Lake Heights in Avon Township. Week of Jan. 14, the North Shore of Petite Lake in Antioch Township. Week of Jan. 28, Klondike Subdivision which is bordered by the North Shore of Fox Lake, and the South Shore of Brass Lake.

Area residents, both pet owners and non-pet owners, will be asked to fill out the animal control survey. The survey will give the Health Department feedback on the quality of animal control services being provided, and, at the same time, inform residents on rabie control and local animal control ordinances.

The Lake County ordinance also requires that dogs, cats or other animals be controlled in some manner to prevent their running at large, whether they are secured or lead by a leash, or are confined by a fence or other means on an owner's property.

For more information on rabies and registration tags, or to report an animal bite, call the Health Department's Rabies Control Program at (708)360-6424.

Morris tells encouraging message to Rockets

by STEVE PETERSON
Lakeland Newspapers

When Shon Morris was a youngster in Iowa, he quickly learned what his favorite pastime would be.

Morris spent his youth refining his basketball skills, later playing on the varsity at Southeast Polk High School in Runnel, Iowa.

Then, when his senior year came around, Rich Falk came calling. The Northwestern University basketball coach signed Morris to a full ride. Today, Morris reflects back on those efforts and proclaims them worthwhile. This week he was reunited with high school friend Kelly Noller, an assistant coach at Richmond-Burton High School. Morris gave an inspirational message to the sophomore and varsity basketball teams at Richmond, then gave pointers to post players.

"The unifying factor which opened many doors for me was basketball. I hope that you can love the game as much as I did," Morris said.

Coming from a university which practice what it preaches regarding academics, Morris told the Rockets that academics must be the top priority. Basketball, though, can help in other areas of life as well.

"It is one of the most positive things one can learn. You have to get along with people and learn to respect others and basketball does that," Morris.

Clad in a "Northwestern Basketball Alumni" t-shirt with the No. 55 on the back, Morris recalled a favorite saying of his father, Hugh.

"My Dad used to say, 'the harder you work at something, the harder it is to surrender,'" Morris said.

Morris' work ethic paid off in the Wildcats record books. He is the school's third-highest scorer, with 1,407 points in his career in Evanston. He scored 16 points a game as a sophomore, 13.5 as a junior and 15.1 as a senior. His high point game came on Dec. 28, 1987 in a 79-74 overtime win over Northern Arizona at the Far West Classic. He had 33 points in that game.

Morris said the biggest challenge in Big Ten play is inside game. He averaged seven, 7.5 and 8.2 rebounds a game at Northwestern.

Residents urged to 'Celebrate Smart'

Lake County residents who "celebrate smart" will play an important role in reducing traffic fatalities during the holiday season, says Judy Fried, executive director of the Northern Illinois Council on Alcoholism and Substance Abuse.

"Slick magazine ads by the alcohol beverage industry make their products look especially inviting," Fried says, "but it's also important not to forget that 63 percent of all Lake County traffic accidents involve the use of alcohol and other drugs."

On New Year's Eve in 1987, alcohol-related crashes in the nation accounted for 78 percent of all highway deaths, Fried says.

NICASA contends that area residents can "celebrate smart" by following these few lifesaving tips:

- Never serve alcohol to anyone under the age of 21, for whom it is an illegal drug. Alcohol-related car crashes are the leading cause of death for 15 to 24 year olds.

- If you're going out, decide beforehand who will drive. If you drive, don't drink, if you drink don't drive. There's no safe level of alcohol for drivers because everyone reacts differ-ently to alcohol on different occasions.

- If a driver had been drinking, offer to drive the person home, arrange for someone else to do so, or invite them to sleep in your home.

For those people who will be entertaining in their homes during the holidays, NICASA suggests the following:

- Parties and social gatherings shouldn't be held just to consume alcohol. An attractive selection of non-alcoholic beverages should be available. About one-third of all adults in the United States abstain from drinking completely for a variety of reasons, and their decision should be respected by family, friends and hosts.

- Stop serving alcohol at least one hour before guests are expected to leave.

- Don't give more alcohol to someone who's intoxicated offer a non-alcoholic alternative, but remember that nothing can "sober up" a person immediately. It takes the human body approximately two hours to metabolize each ounce of alcohol, so coffee or a cold shower can only create a wide-awake drunk instead of a sleeping one.
